Pair Caught Minutes After Bank Robbery

BH Men Arrested In $12,000 Holdup At Peoples State Scottsdale Branch

By BRANDON BROWN
Staff Writer

Two men were captured Friday by state police of the Benton Harbor post about 8 minutes after Peoples State bank branch of Scottsdale was robbed of $12,318. Troopers said the arrests were made when a fleeing 1969 Cadillac skidded on an icy ramp off I-94 and was trapped by two patrol cars.

The arrests were made at the US-31 interchange, about a mile and a half from the bank located on Miners road. Troopers said no shots were fired, and a pillow caseful of money was confiscated.

The robbery was reported at 1:37 p.m. and the arrests were made at about 1:45. Scottsdale is about four miles south of St. Joseph.

Two bank employees were hit by the bandits, but neither required treatment, officers said. Officers said both bandits were armed with handguns. One handgun was seized by police, they said.

Berrien Prosecutor John Smietanka said he had authorized warrants charging bank robbery against two Benton Harbor men identified by troopers as riding in the Cadillac. They are M.C. Woods, 24, of 694 Colfax avenue, and Leotis West, Jr., 21, of 419 Brunson avenue. They were scheduled to be arraigned today.

Both are ex-convicts. Woods served time for the 1969 shooting of a student at Benton Harbor high school, police said.

Bank employees saw the bandits flee and police were furnished a description of a car. A suspect car was first spotted by Benton township police on M-139 near Holiday Inn, south of Benton Harbor. They and state police gave chase, halting the car at I-94 expressway's Niles avenue exit ramp in St. Joseph township.

Benton Township Patrolman Jimmy Windsor said he spotted the car on M-139 near Holiday inn, turned to follow and drew its attention to nearby Trooper Gary Patton of the Benton Harbor state police post.

Both police cars gave chase as the auto headed west on I-94, officers said.

It left I-94 at Niles avenue exit, skidded on the exit curve, and was blocked by Patton and his partner, Service Trooper William Olney, and another police car driven by Trooper Michael Boone.

The two men in the car offered no resistance, officers said. Boone said he spotted a cloth sack containing greenbacks on the right front passenger floorboard.

No weapons were found there, officers said. Sheriff's Det. Fred Reeves set the bank loss at $12,318. Cash seized by state troopers in the Cadillac probably will be counted Monday with a bank employee present, Sheriff's Capt. Ronald

U.S. Won't Accept Congressman's Gift

WASHINGTON (AP) — A South Dakota congressman says he wants to return part of his salary to the taxpayers, but the federal government won't take the money back.

Rep. Larry Pressler instead offered the $4,250 — 10 per cent of his year's salary — to the State of South Dakota, which did accept it.

Pressler returned to South Dakota on Friday and wrote a check for $354, the second of 12 monthly installments. Earlier, he had mailed the first installment ment from Washington.

State Treasurer David Volk accepted the check and said it will be deposited in the state general fund.

Pressler, one of four Republicans to defeat incumbent Democratic congressmen last fall, said he was fulfilling a campaign pledge to set an anti-inflationary example by returning 10 per cent of his pay.

He said he asked the House sergeant-at-arms to withhold the money.

"My offer was actually scoffed at," he said.

The sergeant-at-arms based his refusal on a 50-year-old ruling by the comptroller general that "members of Congress may not, in the absence of statutory authority, waive any portion of their statutory salaries."

"Incredibly, our government, with a projected deficit of $51.9 billion, is unable to accept money voluntarily refunded by members of Congress," Pressler said.

Pressler said examples such as his could result, not in significant spending reductions, but a "general public (that is) more receptive to calls for whipping inflation or conserving energy."

He has introduced a bill to allow voluntary salary refunds by members of any federal employee.

Wife Acquitted Of Murder By Reason Of Insanity

Jurors in the Joyce Johnson murder trial deliberated about 4 and a half hours last night before reaching a verdict of innocent by reason of insanity.

Jurors capped the four-day trial with a verdict about 11 p.m. Mrs. Johnson, 34, formerly of Berrien Center and now of Dowagiac, reportedly wept at the verdict.

She was accused of slaying her husband more than a year ago.

She continues free on $25,000 bond but will be sent to the state center for forensic psychiatry at Ypsilanti up to 60 days for diagnosis, said the trial judge, Judge Julian E. Hughes of Berrien circuit court.

If state psychiatrists feel she needs commitment to a state hospital, they would seek a probate court civil commitment, he said. If not, she is free, he said.

Prosecution and defense both agreed that she continue on bond until reporting to the center, he added.

Jurors went out for supper during the evening, and asked Judge Hughes questions twice — once for instructions on second-degree murder and manslaughter, and reasonable doubt.

Mrs. Johnson was accused of murdering her husband, Carroll Douglas, about Jan. 22, 1974, with a pistol. His body was found by birthday party guests in a bedroom at the Johnson's Berrien Center home on Feb. 4, some 13 days after the homicide.

Mrs. Johnson is the mother of eight children.

One of the prosecution's key witnesses yesterday was John R. "Jack" Walters, of Dowagiac. During Thursday's proceedings, in a videotape filmed while Mrs. Johnson was undergoing psychiatric examination under the influence of a "truth drug," she said a "Jack Walters" had been present at the time of the shooting.

In the videotape, she said she and Walters struggled with a gun, which discharged, killing her husband.

Assistant Prosecutor Sally Zack asked Walters if he was present at the Johnson house on Jan. 22 or when Johnson was shot. His reply: "No, ma'am."

Under cross examination by Defense Atty. Donald Bleich of St. Joseph, Walters said he was working for a lumbering firm on the day in question.

During closing arguments, Miss Zack argued that Mrs. Johnson committed the murder, and there was no evidence that anyone else was in the house at the time of the homicide. She also argued that any degree of insanity was not great enough to refute the claim that she knew what she was doing.

During Thursday's testimony, three psychiatrists testified that if Mrs. Johnson did kill her husband, she was unable to control the impulse which caused her to carry out the act. One psychiatrist, Dr. Ames Robey, said he felt she was "not guilty by reason of insanity."

Bleich in closing arguments maintained that the murder could have happened during a struggle with someone for a gun, which explained how the various shots were inflicted on Johnson's head, he said.

He also argued there was no powder burn on the body, indicating the gun wasn't fired from close range, that there was no eyewitness testimony concerning the murder, and that the prosecution failed to prove Mrs. Johnson's sanity.

Benton Harbor Schools Need Extra Funds

Though this is far from a propitious time to ask anyone to pay more for something, a special millage request to be voted upon Monday in the Benton Harbor school district deserves a favorable response.

The school board seeks an additional two mills annually for the four fiscal years starting July 1st.

Applied to the existing valuation base, this would provide $380,000 a year which under present circumstances is beyond the board's reach.

Half of the money would be applied for some long neglected physical reconditioning of the buildings. The other half would be allocated to what the board describes as an inflationary factor. We understand that latter portion refers to higher costs per day to day necessities such as heat and power, supplies, small replacement items, etc.

While the recommended expenditure falls far short of bringing the district's aging buildings up to a complete operational standard, any improvement at this time, even in the limited context of a clean up and paint up variety, is better than none. A building can be neglected only so long before its eyesore aspect deepens into outright collapse.

The Benton Harbor schools have been through some disturbing experiences in recent years and while the turbulence is still to be fully calmed, a forward stride has been taken.

Morale is an all important factor in any human undertaking and the physical surroundings in which a person must function exerts an indisputable influence in that respect.

The Benton Harbor system has been scraping along to make ends meet for several years and in the process has sacrificed maintenance to its plant and equipment.

An automobile needs an oil change every so often if it is to function properly.

School buildings take a worse beating every day in the year, vacations included.

Scoop Jackson Makes It Official

Thursday, evening Henry Martin (Scoop) Jackson purchased a five-minute telecast over the CBS network to confirm what his friends had been talking up ever since Watergate shot a hole through the Republicans' hull-side.

He will campaign for the Presidency next year.

Washington's senior Senator, first elected to the upper House when he bucked the Eisenhower tide in 1952, maneuvered unsuccessfully for the Democratic nomination in 1972 and following McGovern's burial at the polls came out in highlighted manner for the White House target.

His only serious internal opposition then and as of the moment is Teddy Kennedy who could have the nomination by acclamation. Minnesota's Senator Walter Mondale, an ultra-liberal, would like to be anointed, but unless the political stars shift to a new orbit appears to have scant chance. Those in the Democratic power structure believe a more serious economic decline would have to set in before what essentially is a McGovern carbon copy could succeed.

Jackson, who had delayed the formal announcement for a week prior to its official delivery, presumably has Kennedy's assurance that the Massachusetts Senator will stick by his repeated statement that '76 is too early in the game for him.

There are three signs blinking for Jackson.

As a moderate, he has courted the party's midsection since first going to Washington as a freshman Congressman in 1940 and has been attentive to those occupying the party machinery at any given time.

Labor views him in a friendly light and, more importantly as a personage immune from attack as not being a flunkie sent over from a union hiring hall to take charge of things. This might be qualified to a degree by saying he sits well with George Meany and the AFL-CIO hierarchy. Whether it is significant or not is difficult to fathom now, but Jackson was not among the Washington big names addressing the UAW's jobless rally in the capital earlier this week, whereas Kennedy and Mondale were specially invited guest speakers.

He has been a long-time supporter of Israel, one of the earliest actually in the Congress. This stance is invaluable in areas where the Jewish vote is crucial to any candidate.

A weak point is the opposition from the McGovern-Mondale side of the fence.

Jackson was a hawk on Viet Nam before LBJ's takeover of that war divided the country into hawks and doves.

He has been an ardent lobbyist of defense business for Seattle's Boeing Aircraft company and a staunch advocate for a strong military posture.

He is a law and order man which to a liberal means being anti-civil rights.

More damning was his effort to spike the McGovern guns at the 1972 Democratic national convention and his post-election effort to boot the ultra-liberal element from any semblance of authority in party affairs.

At this stage of the game, that opposition can be taken as an asset in his ledger. Only if U.S. affairs go completely topsy-turvy could the ultra-liberal wing assume dominance.

A greater defect than McGovern's cold shoulder is Jackson's personality.

He is a charmer. Even those who disagree with his opinions find him likeable.

The doubt is whether he can project that same charisma through the boob tube. Presently he does not come on strong as does Kennedy or Jerry Ford.

The answer has to be that Jackson will go to charm school.

MERGER COULD MARK NEW BEGINNING

I was anxious to read the first editorial in the Herald-Palladium and, having read "Changing our name but not our purpose," I find that I am delighted. It is my belief that many of the existing problems facing the leaders of the Benton Harbor-St. Joseph area (as well as surrounding communities) call for a new spirit of cooperation, a realistic dealing with the troubles at hand.

Although, as the editorial indicated, the marriage of names is symbolic (at least to a limited extent), let us allow this merger to mark a new beginning, a rebirth of understanding between these two fine communities. And, just as a new bridge will soon connect St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, may the Herald-Palladium bridge the communication gap.

Best wishes.

DIDN'T GET TO ASK THE BIG QUESTION

I attended the public I&M meeting this morning (Feb. 4). When my turn came to speak it seemed that everything had already been said.

Now tonight, I'm sitting here with one small bulb burning, my sweatshirt and flannel shirt and warm slippers on, trying to fit a $65.90 electric bill into our budget.

I wish I had asked this morning how much do the big shots earn for one year? Do they receive a big yearly bonus?

A few months ago I read quite an article about the big shots at General Motors.

I felt so sorry for them, they had to give up their yearly bonus. They didn't know how they were going to pay their country club dues. Some were afraid they would have to sell their yachts! (Lordy!) I can't even spell it, let alone pay for it!

But I cried all night thinking of these poor people having to give all this up!

I wonder if I&M is ripping us off in other ways besides our monthly bills.

QUESTIONS HARTFORD SCHOOL CURRICULUM

This letter is prompted by a situation that has been going on for some time in the Hartford School System. It is in regard to the curriculum, reading matter and movies our children are being exposed to in our school system.

As an example, ask your children what they studied today. Chances are it was not reading, writing or arithmetic or even history, geography, or science; but I'll bet you'll find they are quite an authority on drug use, drug identification, sex, alcohol, etc. Ask them

Using Honesty As Political Charisma

WASHINGTON — Larry Pressler, freshman representative from the First District of South Dakota, is a most unusual young man.

He's decided that as long as he's in Congress, his income tax returns, all personal financial dealings and business connections will be open to the public. Top members of his staff will follow the same rule.

Pressler plans to co-sponsor a bill to levy the same requirement on all senators, representatives and their staffs.

He refuses honorariums for speech making, an important source of income for many congressmen. In his campaign, he turned back all contributions from organizations — business, agricultural, labor and educational. Three-fourths of his money came in donations of $25 or less.

When running for office, Pressler promised to return 10 per cent of his congressional salary. Finding he could not legally take a unilateral pay cut, he's turning a tenth of his pay over to the government of his state.

The big, fancy expensive congressman's chair that came with his office makes Pressler nervous. He's attempting to exchange it for a smaller, less pretentious model.

He figures no representative should serve more than four terms, and intends to quit after eight years.

In the few weeks he's been in office, he's become concerned over the huge amounts of money easily available to congressmen from special interest groups this year even though there are no elections. By his estimate, he could pick up an easy $10,000 for incidental expenses, a few hundred dollars here, a few hundred there, from one lobbying committee or another.

even as a freshman with little political clout on the Hill. He's amazed at the number of senators and representatives who snap up this money.

At home, where he goes three weekends out of four, Pressler is attempting to draw more small farmers, labor union men and small businessmen into South Dakota's Republican party, where power for years has centered in a rather small, tight-knit group. He attempted unsuccessfully to get a labor union man to run for the GOP chairmanship in one of his First District counties. Friends are now putting together a group of 100 to 200 young men and women, 25 to 40 years of age, that they've checkmarked as future leaders.

Both Republicans and Democrats are included. Pressler plans to meet with this group several times a year to develop political issues and congressional reforms.

This approach is the only means, Pressler believes, by which the image of the Republican party can be meaningfully changed at a time when polls say 60 per cent of all Americans call themselves conservatives, but less than one out of five admit to being Republicans.

Pressler is already in an open public fight with the Republican National Committee, and its chairman, Mary Louise Smith. He thinks there's too much emphasis on raising funds from special interest groups. And he's written a letter to the editor in the Washington Post, opposing the National Committee's $2 million raise-the-GOP image public relations campaign, holding the dollars would be better spent if given to Republican candidates. In return, Pressler's been threatened with retaliation in 1976 when he's up for reelection.

What's Really In Store For Angola?

"Bliss it was in that dawn to be alive," recalled Wordsworth about the rhapsodies accompanying the outbreak of the French Revolution, and without much sense of irony the New York Times editorially applied the same "sunrise" imagery to the arrangements being worked out for decolonization in Portuguese Angola.

The political situation in Angola is complex, but not all that complex. Understanding requires knowledge of a few details. No trace of any sunrise is visible to me.

The liberation movement consists of three groupings, mutually antagonistic, that have fought each other as fiercely as they have fought against the Portuguese.

Connected with the Maoist strand of international revolutionism, and supported diplomatically and with materiel by the Chinese, is MPLA (Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola), now led by Agostinho Neto.

One of its rivals, the FNLA (Front for the Liberation of Angola), under Holden Roberto, represents the pro-Soviet strand.

UNITA (National Union for the Total Liberation of Angola) lacks these external ties; but is certainly not democratic in political tenor. Its leader is Jonas Savimbi.

Last month at a meeting in Mombassa, the three rival leaders temporarily buried the hatchet, since independence is now in the offing, and the agreement they reached was shaped by Admiral Rosa Coutinho, head of the Portuguese governing junta in Angola.

Some idea of the admiral's political coloration may be gained from his characterization of the three insurgent movements, a characterization that I regard as a collector's item. The Soviet-backed FNLA, he said, is "on the right." The Maoist MPLA, he opined, is "of progressive tendency." UNITA he thought "more to the center."

A good deal of skulduggery took place prior to these negotiations, turning on a power struggle within the Maoist MPLA. Relative moderates, including President Mobutu Sese Seko of Zaire, tried to cool things by installing more moderate leadership in the form of Holden Roberto's brother-in-law, Daniel Chipenda. The admiral, however, backed far-leftist Agostinho Neto, who won out.

Why did the admiral make this choice? His reasons provide some clue to the democratic prospects in ANGOLA. The admiral is generally supposed to harbor ambitions to be the next president of European Portugal, and to that end he is assiduously cultivating potential backing on the far left. Therefore Neto.

The transitional government agreed to for Angola is a lulu. It consists of a commission plus a cabinet. The commission is composed of Neto, Roberto, and Savimbi, plus a high commissioner. This commission will control the armed forces, that is, run things. Portuguese settlers are not represented on it.

White settlers will have equal, that is 25 per cent, representation in the cabinet, the three liberation organizations dividing the rest.

This arrangement can either to A (leftist dictatorship in Angola, its character depending on who is victorious in the ensuing power struggle among FNLA, MPLA, and UNITA; or b) civil war, if the large and virtually frozen out settler population decides to take that route.

There is the real world, on the one hand, and, on the other, there is the realm discussed in Times editorials.

Clark Will Assemble New Army Vehicles

Industrial Park Plant Is Site Of Operations

Clark Equipment company's construction machinery division, Benton township, will be the newest tenant in the 562-acre Pipestone Industrial district, according to William E. Smits, president, Twin Cities Area Development Corp., owners of the district.

Clark Equipment reported that the plant to be occupied will be used to fulfill a $16.1 million Army contract for a new family of military vehicles.

The 43,273 square-foot plant was completed last November on a 10-acre parcel at the corner of Meadowbrook road and Dewey avenue. It was built as a joint venture of Holland Construction Co., St. Joseph, and the development corporation.

Roger H. Curry, development corporation secretary, said the plant will be used for assembling and for writing of instructional manuals by Clark engineers.

The power unit ordered by the Army will be a 30,000-pound vehicle. It is designed to be used with an array of attachments for varied uses. Included among attachments will be loaders, dozers, dumpers, scrapers, graders, smooth drum compactors, tamping foot compactors, and water distributors.

Curry said attachments may be fastened to the power unit and removed at will.

Curry noted that most construction machinery vehicles have a single function, rather than interchangeable attachments for several functions.

Clark reported that the first vehicle was completed last year. The cockpit rotates 180 degrees, permitting the power unit to be used to push or pull a vehicle. The power unit can operate independently, when not coupled to work attachments.

It was reported that all attachments can be transported by helicopter, or fixed-wing aircraft and can be dropped by parachute.

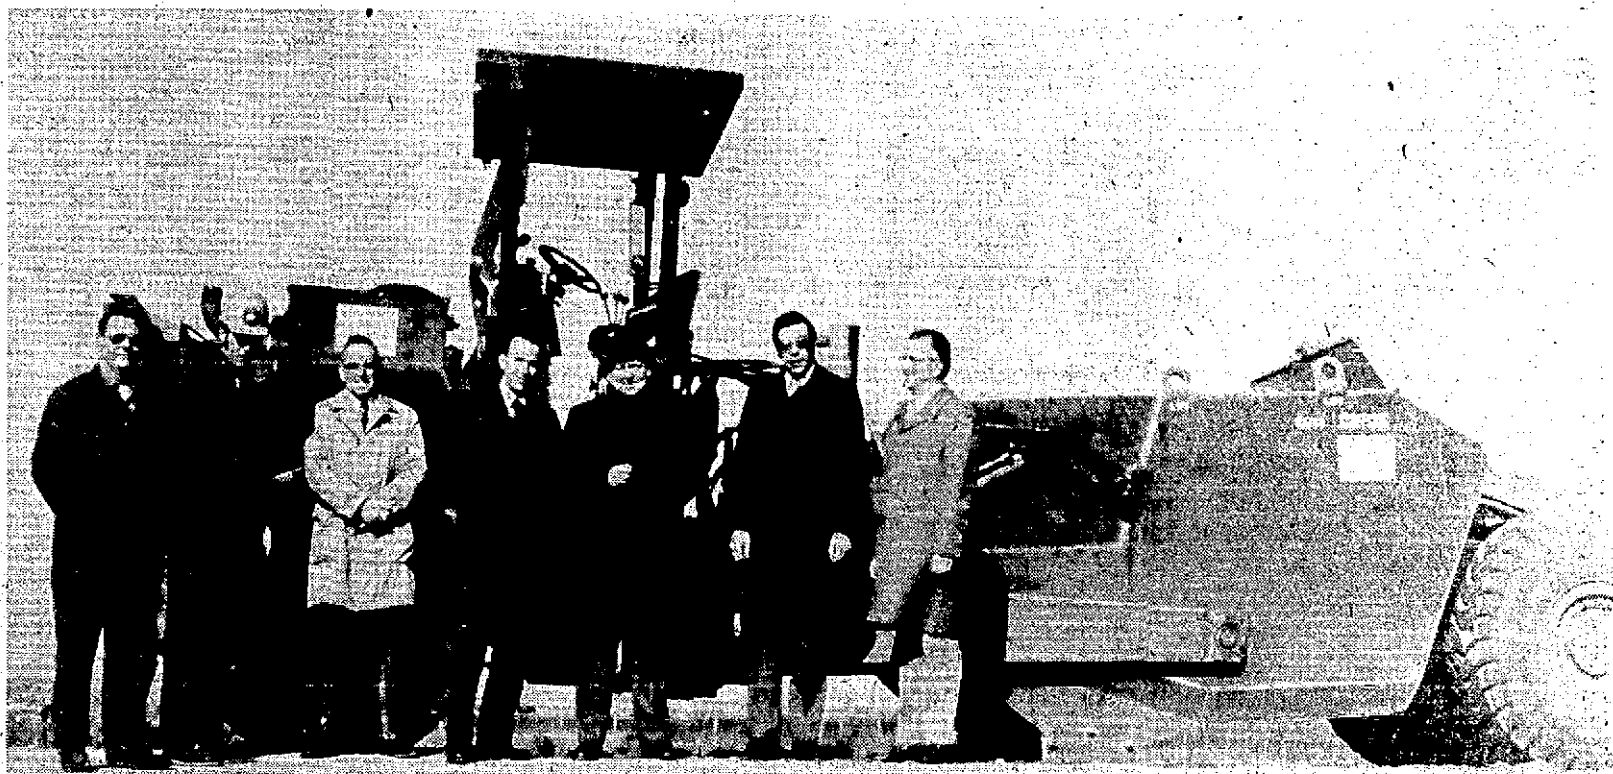

The contract awarded to Clark runs into August, 1978. Clark was one of two companies in competition to get the contract.

Curry said 80 people will be on the job by the end of the year, mostly design engineers, draftsmen, checkers, laboratory technicians and test engineers.

According to Curry, parts will be fabricated at other plants, with assembling in the Pipestone Industrial park building.

The plant is the eighth in the district, located between I-94 and the proposed US-31 freeway south of Lake Michigan college.

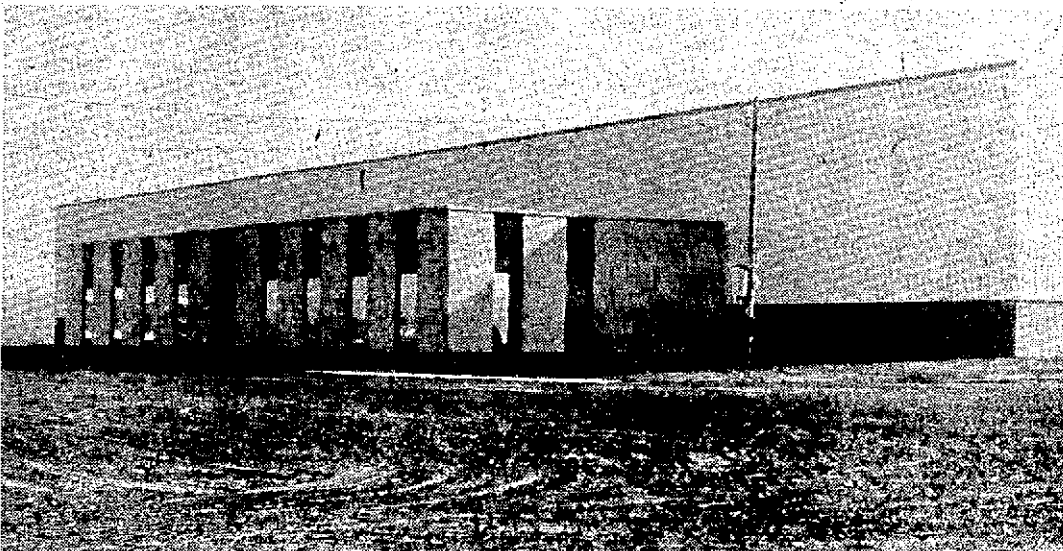

Clark Equipment company's construction machinery division last month announced plans to build a large new plant in North Carolina.

No Money Left To Pay State Home Aid Staff

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Some 10,000 home service workers have missed three consecutive paychecks because the Michigan Department of Social Services is temporarily out of money.

Slate budget officials say the department began withholding the paychecks because its account would have been overdrawn if they were released.

The workers are paid up to $3 an hour to a maximum of $9 a day to help people who cannot fully take care of themselves.

James Farnsworth, assistant director of the Department of Management and Budget, said the Department of Social Services has already spent money that was to have lasted through March and is seeking a supplemental appropriation.

He said the workers should get their back pay within a matter of weeks.

Eileen Ellis, a Social Services budget aide, said that "by next Tuesday, payday, we will owe about $1.5 million."

Authorities estimate that some 17,900 persons are benefiting from the home care program, up from only 8,000 last June.

Susan Rourke, administrative aide to Detroit Councilwoman Maryann Mahaffey, says cutting back on the program would actually cost the state more money. She said many of the those aided would have to move into nursing homes at state expense.

The state pays up to $21 a day for nursing home care.

"That's a legitimate argument," said Farnsworth. "But I'm not sure all of the patients would go into nursing homes. Take those cases where you have a mentally retarded adult whose parents get paid the $270 a month for being the home service worker."

person out of the home."

He said the department made the mistake of assuming the state would pick up the tab, regardless of how big it is.

"Part of the problem is a lack of controls," he said. "We depend on social workers out on the streets to make judgments. Sometimes we don't get the businesslike judgments we would hope for."

Cooke Not For Strong Mayor Form

Wilce Cooke, a member of the Benton Harbor charter commission, says he does not favor a strong mayor form of government.

Cooke said his recommendation to the charter commission Thursday was that "a full-time salaried mayor is needed and the city should retain a city manager-commission form of government."

Cooke said the mayor's duty would be to supervise all appointed department heads and obtain federal funds for the city. He explained the city commission would have the final say.

"I am not for a strong mayor government," Cooke added.

The Herald-Palladium reported yesterday that Cooke had asked the charter commission to reconsider the strong mayor form of government.

BH Votes Monday On 2-Mill School Operating Tax

All registered voters in the Benton Harbor school district are eligible to ballot Monday on a proposed 2-mill extra-voted operating tax to run for four years.

Polls in the district's 27 precincts will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

School officials are seeking the millage to meet costs of inflation and make improvements in district buildings.

Two mills will raise about $380,000. The school board reported it intends to use about half the revenue for inflationary costs while the remainder would be to improve buildings. A team of five administrators and an architect has been surveying buildings and will make recommendations for renovations to the board, if the millage is approved. The work could include such projects as lighting, painting and plumbing.

Precinct polling places are:

Precinct 1, Calvin Britain school; 2, Senior high; 3, Junior high; 4, St. John's; 5, Columbus; 6, Benton Harbor city hall; 7, Seely-McCord; 8, Sterne Brunson; 9, Naval Armory; 10, Morton school; 11, Fairplain East; 12, Fairplain Northeast; 13, Fairplain West; 14, Fairplain Northwest; 15, Bard school; 16, Boynton school; 17, Sedus school; 18, Hull school; 19, Johnson school; 20, Lafayette school; 21, Millburg school; 22, North Shore school; 23, Pearl school; 24, Sorter school; 25, Spinks Corners school; 26, Stump school; 27, Martindale school.

Robbery Suspect Arrested

EDWARDSBURG — An Elkhart, Ind., man was arrested in connection with the armed robbery of Don's Dairy store, State line road, south of here yesterday afternoon, according to Cass county sheriff's deputies.

Arrested was Donald C. Robinson, 20, police said. He remains lodged in the Cass county jail awaiting arraignment in Fourth District court, Cassopolis.

Police said a man entered the store around 2:30 p.m., brandishing a handgun and demanding money from the store owner's wife, Mrs. Opel Keyes. The man then left in an auto, the description of which was later broadcast by the sheriff's department.

An auto matching the description was stopped in Elkhart by Elkhart city police about a half-hour later. Police said $120 in cash and a weapon were recovered.

Hospitals Continue Visit Restrictions

Restrictions on visiting hours at Mercy and Memorial hospitals are continuing because of the winter flu outbreak.

Visiting hours at both hospitals are 1 to 2 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. Visitors are limited to members of the immediate family of the patient, hospital officials said.

Robert Bradburn, administrator of Memorial, said the incidence of influenza seems to have stabilized but the restrictions on visitors are being continued on advice of medical staff.

Fairplain Man Seeks New Trial

A motion for a new trial has been filed in Berrien circuit court on behalf of a prominent Benton Harbor businessman who was convicted last week in circuit court of resisting arrest.

The motion was filed for Thomas T. Nowlen, 48, of 325 Seneca road, Fairplain. He is shop manager of Nowlen Lumber Co. in Benton Harbor.

Nowlen was convicted by jury of resisting arrest on May 12 by troopers from the Benton Harbor state police post. He was acquitted of a second charge growing out of the same incident, assaulting a police officer.

He is free on $4,000 bond. The charge carries a maximum penalty of up to two years in prison.

The motion for a new trial, filed by Nowlen's counsel, St. Joseph Atty. George Keller, claims visiting Judge Robert E.A. Boyle submitted charges of resisting arrest and assault to the jury, giving the prosecution "two bites of the apple," and providing the jury with an opportunity to return a compromise verdict.

The motion must still be argued before Judge Boyle by Keller and a representative from the prosecutor's office.

Chef Cooks Up Big Campaign

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — Presidential hopeful John H. McCabe reports he's already spent $3,943 on his 1976 Democratic bid.

The 61-year-old Jackson chef and salesman disclosed the expenditures in a quarterly report to the General Services Administration in Washington.

So far, the money has gone for billboard and newspaper advertising, and there is still another $4,470 in the campaign war chest, according to the report.

McCabe ran a write-in campaign against Richard Nixon for the Republican nomination in 1960 and made a brief appearance in the Republican primary race in New Hampshire in 1964. Later, he switched to the Democratic party for a gubernatorial bid in Michigan in 1970.

Jackson says he hopes to raise $10 million for his latest political effort. He says he's put a limit of $11.11 on every contribution so he won't be influenced by big money.

Since announcing the bid last summer, McCabe has resigned as executive chef at a local country club and also quit a sales job to allow more time for campaigning.

Those eligible to take the test must be 18 years old or over, out of school, and their high school class should already have graduated.

The GED Test is considered the equivalent of a high school diploma. It is recognized by most colleges, vocational schools and technical schools.

Testing will be held in room 225, second floor, Benton Harbor high school, 870 Colfax Avenue. People are asked to use the entrance in the back of the school. There is a $10.00 test fee.

Kitchen Fire Doused In Benton

Benton township firemen extinguished a kitchen fire this morning about 12:34 at the home of Charles Brown, 1640 Ogden avenue.

Flames broke out in a kitchen cabinet, but the cause was unknown, firemen reported. Fire damage was minor but there was smoke damage throughout the house, firemen said. There were no reported injuries.

CLAIMS $4,211

Chicago Bank Sues BH Mayor

Benton Harbor Mayor Charles F. Joseph is being sued by a Chicago bank which claims he owes $4,211 on a promissory note.

Attorneys for the Independence Bank of Chicago filed suit yesterday in Berrien Fifth District court civil division seeking judgment for the balance owed on a $5,452.20 note the bank claims Joseph signed June 29, 1973.

A copy of the note accompanied the suit. Under its terms, Joseph was to repay the money in 36 monthly installments of $151.45 each. Last payment, received, plaintiffs claim, was $315 on April 25, 1974. At that time, the mayor had paid $1,240, the suit said.

The suit did not mention to what use the mayor planned to put the money. The mayor has 15 days from the time he is served with a copy of the complaint to file an answer to the suit.

Joseph, contacted this morning in Chicago where he is on Air Force Reserve duty, said, "The loan was used to pay off all the debts incurred by the campaign committee during the 1971 mayoral election."

Joseph said this was the first he had learned of the legal action brought by the Chicago bank.

Joseph said, "I can't offer further comment until I talk to bank officials."

End White House Rift

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

More direct and friendlier relationships are being restored between the U.S. President's office and the leaders of major Christian denominations, ending a prolonged, hostile rift between them and the White House.

The change in attitudes was signalled last week when 35 top officials of mainline church bodies spent an hour in conference with President Ford at the executive mansion.

An "historic occasion," Dr. Claire Randall, general secretary of the National Council of Churches, termed it.

It was the first time in 10 years that an American president had invited leaders of the major churches to meet with him, although such contacts had been a regular aspect of earlier administrations.

But the lines of communication had frayed and broken while the late President Lyndon B. Johnson was in office because of the church leaders' spearheading of criticism of Vietnam war policies.

Although he had contacts with some evangelical ministers, such as Billy Graham and picked participants in White House religious services, the not-welcome sign was up to leaders of the main denominations.

In that period, they often found themselves on the picket lines outside the White House, their efforts to present church statements rebuffed.

However, President Ford indicated that last week's meeting was only the beginning of a continuing dialogue with religious leaders, according to the Rev. Dr. James Christison, of Valley Forge, Pa., general secretary of the American Baptist Convention.

The mood hardened back to the styles of Presidents Kennedy, Eisenhower and Truman, who often met with church representatives.

The Rev. Dr. W. Sterling Cary, of Hinsdale, Ill., a United Church minister and president of the National Council, called the meeting "very, very encouraging." He added:

"While there may be differences of opinion between the church group and the President on issues, President Ford assured the religious leaders their views will be heard."

Ford, an Episcopalian, told the group he was designating an assistant, Ted Marrs, as the President's personal liaison officer with the council and member denominations.

These include 31 major U.S. bodies of Methodists, Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Christians (Disciples), United Church (Congregationalists), Lutherans, Baptists, and Eastern Orthodox, totaling 42 million members.

Although the President's schedule had provided for spending only a half-hour with their top officers, he extended the meeting to an hour, discussing matters concerning human rights, the world food situation and the economy.

"We did not go in to grumble or complain but simply to get to know each other and lift up some concerns," said Dr. Randall, a United Methodist and the only woman in the group. Calling the meeting "very, very useful," she added:

"The important thing is that it occurred, and that there is once again this openness between the White House and the churches. It's been a long time. A new start has been made, and the prospects are for continuing relationships, although both we and the President recognize we won't always agree with him."

Dr. Cary, the Council's first black president and a civil rights activist in the 1960s, said the meeting contrasted sharply with the cold-shoulder faced by churches in the Nixon administration.

"We were treated as subversive," he said, adding that several religious leaders were on Nixon's "enemy list" and his own telephone had been tapped. "This is fact, not fiction," he said.

At the meeting with Ford, the discussion centered on issues of human rights in countries supported by U.S. aid, such as South Korea and South Vietnam, U.S. food aid abroad and effects on the poor of rising costs of food stamps.

The meeting closed with a prayer led by Dr. Cary for God's guidance of the President "who does not have the luxury of simplistic solutions" and for "a day of healing not only for our land but for the world."

Double Loser In World Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

SOUTHAMPTON, Bermuda (NEA) — The 1975 Bermuda Bowl is history, and a repeat of other World Bridge Championships of the last 20 or so years of Italian dominance with the exception of 1970-71, when North America won.

This year we made it close. With 48 boards of the 96-board final over, we led by 72 International Match Points. And then came the deluge. The American team cracked and the Italians, led by the brilliant play of Giorgio Belladonna and Benito Garozzo, came back to win a squeaker by 24 IMPs.

In my articles before the tournament, I stated that in my opinion, shared by my son, Jim, the two Italians are the best pair in the world. And they sure proved it.

This tournament started out badly. Some months ago, Alfred Sheinwald wrote two articles that accused the famous Italian Blue Team of cheating. These articles appeared after his selection as captain of one of the four teams to compete for the right to represent North America. Then his team won, and he automatically became North American team captain.

It is possible he might have been replaced, but the European Bridge League wrote an unfortunately worded letter to the American Contract Bridge League. Irritated, the ACBL confirmed Sheinwald as captain.

So the matches started with considerable ill feeling. Of course, this Italian team was not the Blue Team. It had four newcomers, only Garozzo and Belladonna were Blue veterans. But as stated earlier, they proved to be enough.

Furthermore and most important, the table screens, preventing partners from seeing each other during bidding, showed that their claim to fame was based entirely on their ability as players.

I stated before the tournament that the screens were not designed to prevent cheating but to prevent accusations of cheating. And no one has thought to accuse Garozzo and Belladonna or the second Italian pair, Vito Tittale and Arturo Franco, of the least impropriety at any time.

The third pair, Gianfranco Facchini and Sergio Zucchelli, are a different proposition.

It is certain that Facchini was making frequent foot contact with his partner. He claimed that it was just nervousness, but it was suspicious nervousness indeed.

This was noted on board three the first night. The monitor who saw it kept his own counsel until the session was over. At which time he dashed to the room of the American team captain after having sent an American player to ask Edgar Kaplan, a member of the appeals committee, to join them.

It was clearly the monitor's duty to notify the tournament director the minute he first observed this foot movement. It was clearly the American captain's duty to notify the president of the American Contract Bridge League immediately. It was almost equally clear that Kaplan should have notified the president of the World Bridge Federation. Actually, Kaplan did his notifying some 18 hours and one session later.

Sheinwald told the ACBL president eight hours after Kaplan acted. I have no idea when the tournament director was finally told.

Julius Rosenblum, the president of the World Bridge Federation, was notified half an hour before the start of the third round. Since two matches had already been played by Italy, he decided to let the third match go ahead and arranged that Johannes Hammerrich of Venezuela and James O'Sullivan of Australia get a chance to watch. They both observed frequent foot contact.

When this session was over, Rosenblum decided to sleep on the problem.

Not Sheinwald. He called an American team meeting. They discussed strategy until 4:30 a.m., at which time Lou Mathe, ACBL president, was finally notified.

The team announced they were going to insist that Italy forfeit its first three matches and play on without the pair accused of cheating. Incidentally, by this time both other Italian pairs had been watched and cleared of anything except good play.

Mathe told them he would see that some official action was taken before we play Italy, Sunday night.

At 3 p.m. Sunday, there was a captains' and WBF meeting at which the Italian captain was informed for the first time. He promptly asked that the match be postponed until Monday afternoon. This was agreed to.

Sunday night, the WBF met until 3:15 a.m., at which time they censured the Italian pair but allowed them to play. This decision was unanimous. They also had foot blocks placed under the tables.

At 5:30 a.m., the American team finally agreed to play, but under protest. Another night's sleep lost.

In the two early matches Italy did not use Facchini and Zucchelli against us. When it came time for the finals, they were announced as one of the two starting pairs. Whereupon Sheinwald went into action again. He demanded that he, as American team captain, be ordered formally to play against them.

This bit of hyplay had its effect. Belladonna got so mad that he played badly the first 16 boards. Belladonna and Garozzo also played the third set of 16 boards. But when Italy made its comeback on the last 48, they were on the sidelines the whole time.

The sad feature of all this is that not only did we lose again but we fixed matters so that others were delighted to see us lose. "Tournament sympathy" was all on the side of the two people who almost surely were cheating, not on the side of the innocent accusers.

Furthermore, I believe firmly that our final collapse was due to mental and physical exhaustion of the American team caused partly by the captain getting them involved in matters that they, as players, should not have had anything to do with.

And finally, when the chips were down Belladonna and Garozzo, who played every board of the finals and every important board of the earlier matches, came through like the thoroughbreds they are. At the same time, my strong sympathy goes out to the American team who played in a manner to make us all proud.

Reception For Artist

Benton Harbor Area schools and the St. Joseph Art Association invite area residents to a reception for Eugenia Diane Marve, a sculptural ceramist, Monday, Feb. 10, at 8 p.m. at the St. Joseph Art Center, 600 State street, St. Joseph.

Miss Marve is a visiting artist from the artist-in-residence program in the Cheboygan public schools. She will show slides and talk about her work. She received her bachelor and master of fine arts degrees in ceramics from Michigan State University and has exhibited her works at several galleries in Flint, Lansing and Detroit.

Miss Marve is the first of three artists to visit the Benton Harbor schools. Sidney Atkinson, artist in the Flint schools will visit in March and Bobbie Uhl, artist in the Grand Rapids schools, is scheduled to visit in April. Each artist will spend one week in the district working with students.

Teddy Wells, Benton Harbor's artist-in-residence, specializes in painting and spinning, weaving, basketry and macrame. Her studio has been established at Fairplain East elementary school and throughout her residency students will have the chance to work in her studio environment.

This program is supported by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Michigan Council for the Starts and the State Department of Education, with the local school district supplying only the classroom and supplies for children's work.

'Plan Ahead' Speaker Says

EAST LANSING — A woman ought to spend at least as much time planning her life as she does in planning a three-week vacation, according to Dr. Patricia Carrigan, corporate director for human resources of Bendix Corp., Southfield, today in Michigan State university's Kellogg Center for Continuing Education as she keynoted an institute on professional development needs and opportunities sponsored by the MSU Business Women's club.

"By the time the average woman reaches her late 30s or early 40s, her child-rearing task is completed; a host of modern conveniences make it unnecessary for her to devote full time to homemaking, and all of a sudden she is starting 30 or 40 more years in the face without any clear purpose in her life," Dr. Carrigan declared.

That, she indicated, is "reason enough for women to engage in some serious planning for their own development, and the sooner the better."

"Women," she said, "have a deep culturally ingrained habit of applying their planning skills to almost everything — except their own lives."

Deciding what you want to do and where you want to go is the first real step in planning self development, just as it is in planning a vacation, she emphasized.

Dr. Carrigan underscored the essentiality of planning for self development with additional statistics.

She noted that women today can expect to live for 75 years.

"Many more of them are choosing to remain single," she said. "In 1960, a third of the women 21 and over were single; by 1970, the number had risen to half and is still climbing."

"Those who do marry — again speaking of averages — will marry at a younger age than their mothers did, will have fewer children and will have their last child while still in their 20s.

"A majority of the children born today are an economic liability, unlike their counterparts in times past who helped to work the land, make the cloth and churn the butter.

"Consequently, many more married women need to be income producers."

Plant Food

Sixth In Series Of 12

Since your plants are potted and live inside, they are not fertilized by nature. You are their food source.

Be careful with new plants and those in low light. Fertilizer can damage a plant that is trying to adjust to new non-nursery conditions and one in a low-light situation that is not functioning actively cannot use up the extra food.

Fertilizing is best done in small doses. When you are in doubt about quantity, cut it in half. It is easier to refertilize undernourished plants than to repair the damage caused by overfertilizing. Too much can burn the roots or cause fast, strung-out growth, which makes the plant susceptible to diseases and temperature changes.

Choose from liquid, powder, tablet or concentrated fertilizers. Good results can also be obtained from fish emulsion. Liquid and powder fertilizers are usually the best because they are diluted in water and you control the amount used.

Fertilize about once a month during the warmer months from spring to fall. Plants need rest, during periods when there is no new growth, so don't fertilize in the winter months. It gives both you and them a break.

THE BIBLE

173. Elijah and the Widow

Elijah left Cherith Brook and went to Zarephath, as the Lord had commanded him. Upon his arrival, he went to a widow who was gathering sticks, and he asked her for a cup of water. As she went to get it for him, he called, "Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand."

(1 Kings 17:11)

However, the widow explained that she had only enough meal and oil to make one meal for her and her son, and that she was preparing to use it for a final meal, after which they must die of starvation. Elijah told her to cook the meal, but to bring him a little loaf first, and there would be plenty of meal and oil in the containers until the Lord should send rain.

"And she went, and did according to the saying of Elijah; and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days. And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord, which he spoke by Elijah."

(1 Kings 17:15-16)

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Ministers Are Poorly Paid

Dear Ann Landers: I read your column regularly in the Akron Beacon Journal and was delighted to find it in the Star-Phoenix, in Saskatoon, Canada, where we are vacationing.

Please reconsider your answer to the minister's wife who complained because a certain couple did not give her husband a "gratuity" for performing a wedding ceremony. You agreed that the minister was certainly entitled to something.

The clergyman is paid a salary to minister to the needs of his flock. This includes baptisms, weddings, funerals, counseling, visiting the sick and the bereaved. I realize all this is over and beyond the Sunday sermon, but most clergymen would be insulted if you suggested that they worked only on Sunday.

What is this "fee" business anyway? Why shouldn't they charge for visiting hospitals, then? It makes just as much sense.

One final word. I wonder how many clergymen declare those "extra gifts" on their tax returns when they officiate at weddings and funerals and pay taxes on those monies. Darned few, I'll bet.—Raised Eyebrows

Dear Browns: Clergymen are among the most poorly compensated of all professionals. Those who are well enough paid so that they need not depend on "honorariums" to keep food on the table should be given an extra bonus for officiating at weddings (especially if it is part of a festive social affair which requires a rehearsal) and for good reason. These monies are needed for his "contingency" or "discretionary" fund which enables him to help the needy members of his flock—something most people aren't even aware of. Honorariums for funerals are almost always turned over to the church.

Kept Quiet

Dear Ann Landers: Last evening my husband and I went bowling. It was 11:30 p.m. when we finished. Seated near us was a couple with a baby who couldn't have been more than a year old. The poor child was crying from fatigue, rubbing her little eyes, begging her parents to take her home. The mother gave her a bottle and some crackers and told her to keep quiet.

That scene broke my heart. Maybe it's because I have a child the same age. It was all I could do to keep from going over to that mother and asking her to please take her little one home. I actually wanted to but my husband said, "Ann Landers would say M.Y.O.B."

I realize that people need to get out of the house once in a while but if they can't afford a babysitter, couldn't a better arrangement be made? I need to know your views on this. Was I right to keep my mouth shut?—Concerned

Dear Concerned: Yes. That mother would have viewed your concern as interference. I agree that other arrangements should be made if the couple can't afford a sitter. Perhaps the child could be left with a relative, friend or neighbor and the mother could reciprocate by keeping her child or children overnight or taking them for the day. A bowling alley is no place for a one-year-old at 11:30 at night.

Confidential to Should I Speak Up?: Samson slew the Philistines with the jawbone of an ass. Every day thousands of people do themselves in with the same weapon. Keep quiet.

What kind of wedding goes with today's new life styles? Does anything go? Ann Landers's completely new "The Bride's Guide" tells what's right for today's weddings. For a copy, send a dollar bill, plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope (20 cents postage) to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Illinois 60120.

FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1971

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) Conscientious application of your talents now will bring gains for some time to come. But you MUST have confidence in yourself — and in your goals.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21) Keep your eye on the ball and your stock will soar. A "meeting of minds" could produce some revelations, startling new ideas which could eventually prove profitable.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21) An energetic ally may come to your support, personally or financially. Push all worthwhile aims. Especially favored: outdoor pursuits, organization activities.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23) A vital period. Most endeavors should prosper, but think before you speak or act. And do avoid extremes. There is a trend now to the unusual, even the bizarre.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23) Good stellar influences should help you to solve difficult problems now. But don't be carried away by your vivid imagination which, properly directed, can bring you great success.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) A number of things will have to be organized before you can proceed efficiently. Emphasize composure, delicacy of approach, calmness in discus-

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Certain situations could annoy IF you permit. Take all in stride. Also, think well before making decisions. Some revisions in your thinking could bring about better results.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22) Follow a flexible program, geared smartly to the needs of the day. Present new ideas briefly and lucidly. Expect the unexpected.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21) Avoid a present tendency toward impulsiveness. In moments of stress, SLOW DOWN — rather than take steps to a position from which it may be hard to extricate yourself.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Generous influences stimulate your ingenuity and imagination. Use both well, and rewards will please. Reach into the unusual, study new trends.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Differences of opinion need not result in needless rifts. Get together with those concerned and, with calmness and your innate sense of humor, you can straighten any situation.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You cannot afford to take wild chances, but neither should you be hesitant, timid, unsure. Somewhere in between is the sensible, intelligent road YOU can find it!

YOU BORN TODAY, a native of the second decade of Aunus, are extremely versatile, ambitious — and enterprising; can reach the loftiest of positions even from most humble beginnings. Enthusiastic about life and everything it has to offer, obstacles never discourage you. They merely act as challenges for you to meet and conquer. You loathe the injustice of any kind and will defend the weak to your last breath. Highly creative, you could carve an enviable career in the fields of writing, painting, music or interior decorating, but you also make excellent scientists (especially in the world of medicine), statesmen and entertainers. North's five notrump response was one of those modern scientific bids. It demanded that South bid his lowest four-card suit. When South bid six spades, North knew his partner held four spades and three cards in each other suit. This discouraged North and he settled for letting South play what should have been an easy six notrump.

It didn't work out that way.

Exchange Student To Speak

LAWTON — United Methodist Women of St. Paul's United Methodist church will meet at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 13, at the church.

Guest speaker will be Maria Eugenia DaBove, an exchange student from Valdivia, Chile, who will be attending Lawton high school for 10 weeks. Miss DaBove will show slides of Chile.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Herbert Haley and Mrs. Edgar Smoot.

South won the diamond lead, cashed dummy's ace of clubs and led low to his jack and West's queen. West promptly led back the 10 of clubs and east discarded a heart. He could afford this because he knew that South held just three hearts.

Now South cashed all the hearts and the last two diamonds. Everyone followed. West knew from the bidding that South only held three diamonds, so he dropped the 10 and nine and hung on to the seven.

South cashed dummy's ace and queen of spade and thought. West was known to have a club as one of his last two cards. Was the other seven of diamonds or the jack of spades? South guessed wrong and was one down.

The hand wasn't a triumph for science, but it wasn't a tragedy either.

The game was team of four; at the other table and somehow or other South managed to go down two.

CARD Sense

The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
Pass	1 ♠	Pass	1 ♣
Pass	3 ♠	Pass	4 ♠
Pass	5 ♠	Pass	7

You, South, hold:

▲ A Q 7 6 ♥ 2 ♠ K J 5 4 ♣ A Q 8 2

What do you do now?

A — Bid six spades. Your partner is trying for a slam. You are delighted to bid it. At the same time you have definitely told him that you don't hold the ace of hearts.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding three diamonds your partner has bid three hearts over your three clubs. What do you do now?

Answer: Moody

Dr. Lester Coleman

The laser beam has been, for years, explored for its value in certain types of surgery.

Now, a new device known as the "bloodless scalpel" may replace the laser beam in some instances.

Dr. John L. Glover, at the Indiana University Medical Center, is using this "bloodless scalpel," which is a special energized gas, for surgery of the lungs, the brain and the liver. These organs have such a rich blood supply that it is often difficult to control severe bleeding.

With this new jet-propelled gas scalpel, surgery can be performed and bleeding can be better controlled.

Dr. Glover and his collaborator, Dr. William J. Link, believe that this technique has a great many advantages in selected cases.

Excess vibrations, in the factory, while driving tractors and in other heavy industry jobs, may be the culprit in some physical conditions.

Dr. H. Haskell Zipperman, of the Southwest Research Institute, in San Antonio, Tex., recently found "significant evidence linking whole-body vibration to certain occupational diseases that interstate bus drivers develop."

He believes that "whole-body vibration could contribute to a number of vascular, bowel, respiratory, muscular and back disorders experienced by tractor drivers, truckers, bus drivers, train conductors and heavy equipment operators."

This important innovative concept may radically change the lives of many people who today are unprotected against massive whole-body vibration.

If subsequent studies continue to show vibration to be the responsible cause of varicose veins, hemorrhoids, and hernias, many new protective devices will be incorporated into industry.

The early studies of Dr. Zipperman were so significant that a comprehensive program has been undertaken by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health.

Far too many people pay a huge penalty for long-standing exposure to dangers that are unrecognized in their occupations.

DR. LESTER COLEMAN has a special eye-care booklet available called "What You Should Know About Glaucoma and Cataracts." For your copy, send 25 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lester L. Coleman, M.D., (Eye booklet), P.O. Box 5178, Grand Central Station, New York City 10017. Please mention the booklet by title.

Michigan Unemployment Soars To 13.7%

DETROIT (AP) — Unemployment soared to 13.7 per cent in Michigan last month, with 529,000 persons out of work. National unemployment statistics showed 8.2 per cent of the American workforce off the job.

The number of Michigan unemployed was the highest of any month since the state began collecting data in 1956, according to J.C. Friedman, deputy director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Some 100,000 persons joined the jobless rolls in January. Nationally, unemployment was at a 33-year high, the worst since the end of the Great Depression.

Detroit area unemployment was 14.6 per cent, the worst since 1961. In January, 1974 there were 281,200 unemployed in Michigan for a jobless rate of 7.4 per cent.

In the Detroit metropolitan area of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Lapeer, Livingston and St. Clair counties, unemployment climbed to 272,200. The six-county figures are up from December when 12.2 per cent of the work force — or 229,900 — were jobless.

MESC figures for the Detroit area are the highest since March 1961 when 15.1 per cent of the labor force was out of work. A year ago January, the Detroit metropolitan area had an unemployment rate of 7.9 per cent — or 144,500 jobless.

MESC said most of the unemployment resulted from layoffs in the manufacturing, construction and retail trades industries.

Although the auto industry has been hard hit by layoffs, Friedman said, the economic downturn also is creating reductions in most other industries in the state.

The national jobless rate was a full percentage point jump over December's 7.2 rate, and was the highest since the nation emerged from the depths of the Great Depression at the start of World War II.

United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock noted that the figures were worse than forecast by the Ford administration and called for immediate action to provide jobs.

AFL-CIO President George Meany said the figures "spell tragedy for American families and disaster for the American economy."

White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said President Ford was concerned about the new level of unemployment but urged that "there not be a panic."

Labor Department figures traced most of the new unemployment last month to layoffs in manufacturing. The government said 640,000 workers lost their jobs, dropping employment in January to 84.6 million. Another 290,000 persons began looking for work, increasing the total new jobless to a seasonally adjusted 930,000.

The unemployment rate has not risen above 8 per cent since 1941 when the nation was preparing for war. That year unemployment averaged 8.9 per cent. Monthly statistics were not kept until 1948.

In the post War period, joblessness approached 8 per cent only in October 1949 when it hit 7.9 per cent because of a miners strike.

The previous postwar recession high was 7.5 per cent in July 1968. During the Depression, unemployment reached 25 per cent of the 52 million-member work force.

The Ford administration's latest forecast is for unemployment to peak at 8.5 per cent before beginning to subside later this year.

U.N. Trying To 'Soften' Stand

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Top officials of the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization are trying to soften an action against Israel that caused Congress to hold up $19 million in United States dues.

Under Arab pressure, the conference of UNESCO in Paris decided last fall to bar Israel from certain intergovernmental activities in Europe and stopped $24,000 in cultural aid to Israel as a penalty for forbidden archeological excavations in occupied Arab Jerusalem.

This brought a sharp response from Western parliaments and celebrities. The U.S. Congress is holding up the $19 million for 1975, and leading Western artists and scientists are denying UNESCO expert advice and help until the action is reversed.

A senior UNESCO official said Friday that William B. Bullum, U.S. assistant secretary of state for international organization affairs, urged the organization show some activity toward such a reversal when he met Monday with its new Senegalese director-general, Amadou Mahtar M'Bow, in Paris, the seat of UNESCO.

The official said only the next 135-nation general conference in 1976 had authority to reverse the decisions, but UNESCO's 40-member executive board, meeting next May, could delay implementing the $24,000 penalty if there were new evidence to warrant it.

He said M'Bow could get new evidence by arranging for a Belgian professor of architecture, Raymond Lemaître of the University of Louvain, to make a trip to Jerusalem and report back.

The informant said it would be helpful if Lemaître could report that Israeli archeologists had shored up the ceilings of old tunnels that had begun to settle dangerously after debris was removed.

The official said Israel's exclusion from European intergovernmental meetings — which made it the only country without the right to attend any regional meetings of that kind — would have no immediate effect because no such meetings were scheduled until 1977.

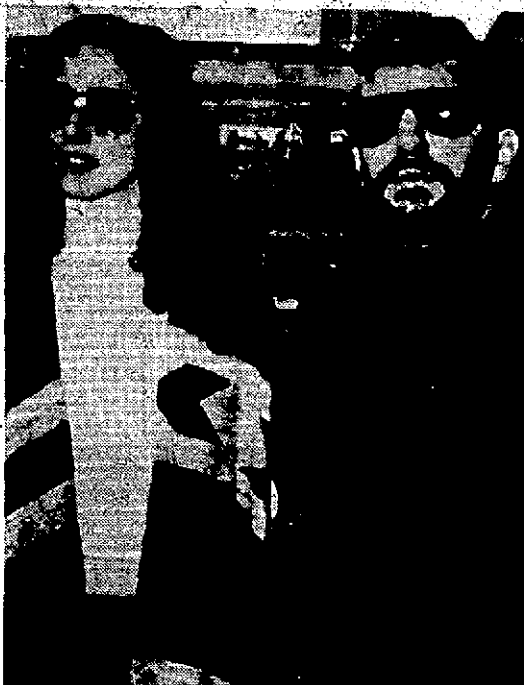

He said M'Bow would use his own prerogative to invite Israel to all European nongovernmental meetings — those involving artists and scientists, not government representatives.

In reply to questions, the official said M'Bow had the duty to carry out general conference decisions but also had the duty to preserve the agency's capacity to do its job in education, science, culture and communication. He said without American money the work will be hampered by a serious cash shortage in July.

He said although African and Asian countries have offered substitutes, the loss of services of some Western cultural figures, among them Nobel Prize winners, also is cause for concern.

Sponsor Returns Land Bill

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The sponsor of a major land use measure which failed to pass the state legislature last year has reintroduced an identical bill in the new session.

Rep. Philip Mastin, D-Hazel Park, said adoption of the measure is crucial for Michigan's recreation and agriculture capabilities. The bill would create a state Land Use Commission to develop a statewide policy to regulate development of unzoned "critical land."

Appointment of the seven-member commission would be followed by development of a land use plan for such critical land areas — those lands considered vital to the state's recreation and agriculture needs.

"Only about one-third of Michigan's 36 million acres would fall into this category," Mastin said. "Right now we're losing this land at a rate of about 200,000 acres a year. This trend must be stopped."

The development of the land use plan would begin at the local level, with cities and townships submitting plans to county planning commissions which would then submit a countywide proposal to the state commission. The commission would then develop a statewide plan.

Peace Corps Diaries May Be Valuable

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you were in the Peace Corps and kept a diary, the Smithsonian Institution would like to hear from you.

It says it is convinced that scholars in the future will discover a wealth of data about little-known people and events in the diaries, journals and correspondence of former Peace Corps volunteers.

With this in mind, Herman J. Viola, director of the institution's anthropological archives, is seeking donations. But he would like you to write to him first.

"I am simply astounded at some of the events of significant historical interest that volunteers have been associated with in one way or another," Viola said. "The Peace Corps volunteer who works in a foreign society for several years often has an entirely different perspective of an event or development than has a visiting scholar."

In addition to journals and diaries, Viola is interested in letters written home, sketches made by volunteers or people they worked with, interesting photographs and tape recordings. Also valuable are topics dealing with natural phenomena, cultural norms, narratives, eyewitness accounts of historic events and anthropology, he said.

Persons interested in donating material are asked to send a description to Viola at the National Anthropological Archives, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C., 20560.

Viola says he will respond with advice on what is desired and a short legal form transferring ownership. No money will be paid for the material but the Smithsonian will pay for postage charges and will return copies of donated material on request.

The archives contain many old journals and documents written by Americans who traveled all over the world a century ago. Viola said researchers have found them extremely useful.

"The experience and impact upon foreign cultures of 100,000 young volunteers during the past 14 years represents a unique chapter in American history," he said. "Future scholars will undoubtedly be interested in chronicling this movement as seen through the eyes of its participants."

Jury Convicts Stevensville Man

A Stevensville man whose armed robbery trial in November ended in a mistrial was convicted yesterday in Berrien circuit court of armed robbery.

Jurors in Judge Chester J. Byrns' court deliberated less than an hour before convicting Jerry Eugene Morris, 22, of 5400 Red Arrow highway. He was lodged in the county jail in lieu of $15,000 bond.

Morris was accused during the 1½ day trial of robbing Mrs. Dorothy Pawlacyk of $1,200 cash and $500 in checks Aug. 3 at 1773 John Beers road, Lincoln township. He was charged with using a pistol to rob Mrs. Pawlacyk.

Morris was tried on the same charge in November before Byrns, but that trial was declared a mistrial when jurors could not reach a verdict.

Morris faces a maximum sentence of life imprisonment. Opposing counsel were Assistant Prosecutor Robert McDowell and St. Joseph Atty. Richard Globensky.

what movie or how many movies they've seen this week and have them tell you what they saw.

The schools have jumped caffeine, nicotine, alcohol and the prescription medicines that we use, in with hard drugs making us parents who might smoke, drink coffee or use alcohol to be drug addicts. Do you consider yourself a drug addict? The school tells your children you are.

Now let's see what happens after you find out you don't like what you hear from your children. You start by filing your complaint with the principal and go through the chain of command to appear before the board, as was done by the Concerned Parents Group, in their protest over books and movies. The school superintendent then appoints a committee, making sure it is heavily weighted in favor of the school, to review a particular book. He also selects the chairman of these two opposing factions just for good measure. Wouldn't you consider this very undemocratic?

In the case of the movie review committee, three Concerned Parents were appointed with no voting power. Also the movies are reviewed after the fact, after the students have all been exposed to the questionable movie. Too late — the damage is done.

You might ask yourself at this time where is our school board? Our school board seems to have a non-involvement attitude in these matters. Whatever the superintendent says, they sit there nodding their heads like ducks sitting on a pond. The people that should be concerned with providing a good sound basic education are too busy building shrines to themselves. Take a look at our new open classroom school, Woodside Elementary. What a psychedelic experience. After a year in that school, the kids will be higher than any drugs could ever put them, not to mention their parents when they hit the ceiling. After we are finally through with our building and remodeling program, the board has deemed it necessary to spend $75,000 of our hard earned dollars to build a shrine to Waterkamp called an administration building. Next, they'll want money to build a garage to park the buses in because of the excessive amount of vandalism occurring to them. Think about it; it's coming.

Getting back to the curriculum problem, you might ask yourself another question. What could possibly be being taught in a class that a teacher would tell her students that they "had better keep their mouths shut or she'll wring their necks?" Something rotten is going on in our schools and it can only lead to a breakdown in the family structure and parental authority. Have you noticed lately a change in your children's attitude toward you? Don't expect our present school board to get involved in these problems with the administrator. After all, they wouldn't want to kill the goose that layed the golden egg.

Sit up and take notice, parents! Ask questions.

CLAIMS CICERO SAID IT FIRST

Editor,

If Patrick Henry thought taxation without representation was bad, he should see it with representation. I understand the Executive Branch has just asked the Congress to approve a $2 billion dollar deficit in the budget for fiscal year 75-76. And my wife thinks I'm a big spender. What's the government doing with my money?

With the $1,600 a year I'm paying in social security taxes (at the present rate and not going up) in the 32 more years I have to pay them before I retire, I will have paid in around $75,200 dollars. Not even figuring any interest in the equation I would have to live another 50 years to get my money back at present benefit levels. A real deal isn't it?

Spend on fellas. Roosevelt started it and you can finish it. I would like to lay one good quote from history on you before I sign off. "The budget should be balanced; the treasury should be refilled; public debt should be reduced; the arrogance of officialdom should be tempered and controlled; assistance to foreign lands should be curtailed lest Rome become bankrupt. The mobs should be forced to work and not depend on government for subsistence."

Some current sage? Hardly; the speaker was Marcus Tullius Cicero, speaking in the Roman Senate. He lived from 106 to 43 B.C.

Furloughs Reach A New High

DETROIT (AP) — Layoffs continued to take the heaviest toll on the nation's beleaguered auto makers, with open-ended furloughs now afflicting 30 per cent of the Big Three's huge workforce.

Indefinite layoffs at the major auto companies will idle 287,550 of the firms' 684,000 workers Monday. Open-ended furloughs are the most since the severe sales slump hit the industry more than a year ago.

Another 45,330 workers will be on temporary layoff next week.

Industrywide, January layoffs idled 24 per cent of all auto-related workers, the highest jobless rate of any manufacturing industry, according to U.S. Department of Labor figures released Friday.

The auto companies will have 14 car and truck plants closed next week to reduce inventories of unsold models, which remain high despite cash rebate plans and extensive plant shutdowns in the past three months. Last week the firms had 26 plants closed.

Ford Motor Co. said Friday it will close 10 plants and temporarily lay off 28,175 workers for next week, 11,600 fewer than were furloughed this week when the firm had 15 plants shut.

But Ford also said it was indefinitely laying off another 800 workers, raising its open-ended furloughs to 35,200. The firm will have 63,375 of its 177,000 production workers on layoff next week.

The 253,000 worker layoffs scheduled for next week are down from 275,000 this week.

PROTEST VISIT

BERLIN (AP) — United Nations Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim's visit to East Berlin has drawn criticism from West German politicians.

Damman Probe Is Nearing End

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Amid indications an attorney general's probe of the lieutenant governor is nearing an end, Gov. William Milliken said Friday he believes Lt. Gov. James Damman will remain in office.

The governor closed a news conference backing away from the podium in the executive office amid a flurry of questions from reporters about the investigation.

"He and I have discussed his responsibilities and his interests, and you can be very sure that he will be very constructively involved in the progress of this state," Milliken said of Damman.

"I have seen nothing at this point...and I anticipate nothing will happen" that would prompt the removal of Damman as lieutenant governor, Milliken said at a news conference.

Milliken said he believes

Damman has cooperated fully with investigators, but conceded Damman's partners in a real estate firm, which is part of the probe, have not cooperated fully.

He said this makes it difficult, "but by no means impossible" for the attorney general's investigators to do their job.

Damman was questioned under oath for four hours on Thursday about his role as a partner in Lincoln & Co., the real estate firm.

Damman and his partners purchased property in the city of Troy when the lieutenant governor was a Troy city official in the late 1960s.

The Detroit Free Press revealed the investments, and the attorney general's criminal division launched a probe for possible conflict of interest.

After the interrogation, Damman told a reporter he hopes to meet with the governor in the next few weeks to discuss his role in the Milliken administration.

Damman said one possibility is acting as legislative liaison for Milliken on critical measures.

East Lansing radio station WVIC quoted "a very reliable source" in the attorney general's office saying the probe of Damman thus far has found "no evidence of wrongdoing."

What Smoking Can Do To Your Mouth

(Editor's Note: This is the last in a series of articles prepared by the Lakeland Dental Society for National Children's Dental Health Week, Feb. 2-8. The society covers Berrien and Cass Counties.)

Question: My dentist has mentioned several times that I should not start smoking. I'm 17. Why should he care whether a person smokes or not?

Answer: Dentists are concerned about smoking and its harmful effects on oral tissues. They have examined the available evidence and believe that smoking is a serious oral health hazard.

Most people, for example, are aware that when they smoke, they increase the risks of developing lung cancer, but few realize that they also run a higher risk of developing cancer of the mouth and throat. Annually, some 15,000 new cases of oral cancer are diagnosed, and approximately 7,000 persons die of the disease.

Oral cancer is one of the most difficult to treat of all cancers if not detected early. Unfortunately, oral cancer often is painless until it is too late for other than severely disfiguring treatment.

Smoking has other effects on oral health. For instance, smokers have more periodontal (gum) disease. A recent study by a Massachusetts dental scientist shows that periodontal disease is more advanced in smokers than in nonsmokers, with greater rate of bone loss and tooth mobility in the smokers.

Clinical studies indicate that loss of teeth is more frequent among smokers than nonsmokers. It also has been established clinically that there is a positive correlation between the consumption of tobacco, gingivitis, and the formation of calculus.

Your dentist has urged you not to start smoking because he knows that smoking affects your teeth and oral tissues in a number of other ways: it stains the teeth, causes bad breath, dulls the sense of taste and smell and increases the risk of many diseases.

Another little known fact is that smokers are, on the average, absent from their jobs about six to seven days more during the year than are nonsmokers.

As a young person, you are fortunate that you have never started to smoke. The hazards of smoking far outweigh its pleasures.

Utilities Need Aid By U.S.

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The chairman of Consumers Power Co. and Michigan's top utilities regulator disagree on how much help the federal government should lend to ailing electric companies.

Consumers Chairman A. H. Aymond believes the federal government should purchase utility securities to buoy depressed electric and natural gas companies. He said Thursday the purchase should be temporary and last "only until utility company credit is restored."

But state Public Service Commission Chairman William Rosenberg favors having the federal government guarantee bonds sold by the utilities to private investors. Aymond said Rosenberg's suggestion amounts to a direct federal subsidy, which Aymond opposes.

Aymond said direct subsidies could lead to government takeover of the utilities industry.

He told local businessmen and reporters at a luncheon he has "an ingrained resistance to the notion that we should run to Washington for solutions to our problems. But I see no viable alternative if Michigan and the nation are to have adequate energy supplies in the future."

Aymond said he was urging federal support "with great reluctance."

Rosenberg said his approach of guaranteeing bonds would drive down high interest rates and tend to reduce the size of customers' monthly bills.

Rosenberg was instrumental in granting Consumers Power a $66.2 million rate increase in electric rates a few weeks ago.

The PSC chairman said he is "pleased that he (Aymond) recognizes the need for federal support of utilities, but I don't think he goes far enough."

"I believe it also is necessary to reduce the cost of interest to companies and thereby reduce rates to customers. His (Aymond's) program does not provide for savings for the customer."

Consumers Power has had difficulty raising money for construction because earnings on its common stock have fallen sharply and its bond rating has declined. The utility has raised interest it pays on bonds to nearly 12 per cent to insure there would be buyers. Consumers Power must raise $250 million for construction this year.

GM Gives Up On Plans For Spanish Deal

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors apparently is abandoning year-long plans to establish a car subsidiary in Spain because of a disagreement with the Spanish government, the company said Friday.

A GM spokesman in New York said the auto giant and the government have been unable to agree on terms for GM's proposed take over of a British Leyland Corp. operation in that country.

GM's plans for a Spanish venture will end officially on Saturday, the deadline GM was given for responding to government terms.

Milliken Refuses To Take A Stand On DST

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Gov. William Milliken says a survey shows that adopting Daylight Saving Time this month would have "relatively little if any" impact on public safety.

At the same time, Milliken refused Friday to take a stand on whether Michigan should join the rest of the nation and go to daylight time Feb. 23.

If the legislature fails to pass a new law — or Milliken fails to sign it — Michigan will remain on Eastern Standard Time until April 27. That would put the state an hour behind the rest of the Eastern Time Zone for two months.

"He'll either have to say he's for it or against it. And if he's for it, we'll need his help to get it passed in time to make any difference this year," said House Speaker Bobby Crim, D-

Davidson, who wants the measure approved.

"I'm going to have a position when it's necessary to have one, when the bill goes through," Milliken said at a news conference.

Milliken released a study showing that injuries to school children walking to school during DST last Feb. 23-April 26 were fewer than the same period in previous years without

DST. Milliken's study, prepared by State Police and the state Department of Education, showed there were 48 injuries and two fatalities among students aged 5-17 between the hours of 7 and 9 a.m. from March 23-April 26 last year, the first time winter DST was in effect in Michigan.

But without DST for the same period in 1973 there were 57 injuries and no fatalities and in 1972 there were 57 injuries and one fatality, the study said.

A major argument of opponents of DST is that children are more likely to get injured walking to school in the early morning darkness.

The survey also indicates that darkness will not be as serious a problem in the February-March period as it was in the dead-of-winter months December and January last year because the sun will rise earlier.

The study shows, however, that injuries to children jumped dramatically in January 1974, but fell back later. The January figures were 64 injuries and no fatalities, compared to January, 1973, with 23 injuries and one fatality, and January, 1972, with 24 accidents and one fatality. Part of the drop in injuries for subsequent months was due to school districts adjusting their starting times to the darkness last year, the study said.

Also school buses run from 5:30-7 a.m. now so "shifting the hours of darkness around isn't going to make a great deal of difference at this time of year," the report said.

The House will take up the DST matter again Tuesday. It failed by one vote Thursday to get the state on DST this month.

Constable Stands Mute During His Arraignment

CASSOPOLIS — Wayne Wilson, a Pokagon township constable, stood mute to a charge of arson during his arraignment in Cass county circuit court here yesterday.

DOCTOR TALKS: French Prof. Jacques Caroli, above, Aristotle Onassis' personal physician, said in Paris Friday the Greek multimillionaire's health "has been shaken by very heavy influenza, his doctors are trying to treat the consequences." Caroli made no mention of the debilitating muscular disease Onassis is said to be suffering from, myasthenia gravis. (AP Wirephoto)

His pre-trial hearing was scheduled for Feb. 14 and bond was continued at $3,000 by Judge James E. Hoff.

Wilson, 23, 3139 M-51, Pokagon township, was arrested by state troopers from the Niles post in December in connection with the Sept. 12 fire at the vacant Pokagon township school.

Wilson had also been facing a breaking and entering charge in Berrien county in connection with the reported March 9, 1974, burglary of a Niles township home.

The Berrien county charge was dismissed in Berrien Fifth district court in Niles Tuesday because of what the prosecutor's office said was a lack of evidence.

Wilson had been arrested after the March 9 theft but was put on a year-long pre-trial probation for first offenders. The probation was revoked and court proceedings started after his Cass county arrest.

Wilson was one of two Democrats to unseat incumbent Republican constables in the township's Nov. 5 general election.

Township officials said Wilson has not resigned from his office, but he is no longer qualified for the position after a Dowagiac insurance agency revoked his $1,000 surety bond in December.

PRESENTED AWARD: Peter Palis (above) of Sodus, chairman of the St. Joseph River soil conservation district, was incorrectly identified as Roland Loberdy in a photograph that ran in yesterday's Herald-Palladium. Palis presented an award to Frank Kotyuk, conservationist for the district.

Brezhnev Still A Mystery

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev has not appeared in public for 46 days, but without fail every day his name has appeared in print or on radio and television.

Whether it is in a congratulatory message to an Estonian milkmaid who has overfulfilled her five-year plan quota, or in praises to a submarine crew, Brezhnev's name is kept on prominent view.

Nowhere in the official Soviet media is there a hint of the steady flow of rumors in the capital's foreign colony about the 68-year-old Brezhnev — rumors that he has been stricken with an illness, ranging from flu to cancer.

But no clear sign has come from the secrecy of the Kremlin to indicate to seasoned observers here that Brezhnev's political base has eroded.

Rumors of ill health flowed from cancellation of Brezhnev's long-scheduled January trip to the Middle East. No reason was given.

Since an appearance at the Supreme Soviet (parliament) Dec. 24, Brezhnev has not verifiably been seen in public. Soviet officials say he attended private funeral services for his mother Jan. 8, but since then there has been no official word indicating his whereabouts or movements.

Reports from foreign diplomats and newsmen that Brezhnev has been seen speeding down Moscow boulevards to the Kremlin in recent weeks have not been followed by any announcement that he was back at his office receiving visiting dignitaries or local delegations, which has been normal fare in his 10 years in power.

Some Western officials, part of whose job is to assess the activities and status of the Kremlin leadership, say they have no evidence Brezhnev is in danger, either from a health or a political viewpoint.

But some other diplomats pass the word on Moscow's busy cocktail and dinner circuit that Brezhnev is in political trouble or has heart disease, a respiratory ailment, or worse. One ambassador was certain last week that Brezhnev was suffering from cancer of the jawbone, explaining his often noted problem of clearly enunciating when he speaks.

The consensus among foreign observers is that the Brezhnev mystery will reach a climax next week when British Prime Minister Harold Wilson comes to Moscow.

Although technical protocol would not require Brezhnev — the leader of a party — to see the head of a foreign government, it would be considered highly unusual if he did not see Wilson.

Pair Captured After Scottdale Bank Robbery

Immos said. Police also said they recovered a handgun, but declined to elaborate. They said both bandits were armed when they entered the bank.

No shots were fired during the incident, according to Prosecutor Smetanka. The two bandits, one with a cap pulled low and wearing sunglasses, the other with a red ski mask covering his face, struck the manager and an employee who had touched off an alarm, Reeves said.

Neither was seriously hurt and neither required treatment, Reeves said.

He declined to name bank workers as "not necessary" and a chance something might happen to them.

The first bandit in the bank came "hurtling" through bank doors, raced to the south end of the bank and leaped a teller cage "like they did on the Dillinger movie the other night," Reeves said.

He told tellers to lie on the floor. The bandits struck in the head the employee that set off an alarm, and knocked the manager to the floor, Reeves said.

Bandits ordered employees to lie on the floor as they fled. But the manager arose and saw a car occupied by two men leaving the parking lot and turn north on M-139, Reeves said.

The manager called the sheriff's office and advised it was a "live alarm" and gave a description of the car, Reeves said.

Muskegon Man Is Convicted

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP) — A 26-year-old Muskegon man was convicted of manslaughter Friday in the Sept. 4 shooting death of a Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad brakeman.

Duane Surtmers was convicted by Circuit Court Judge Fredric Griman after a four-day trial without a jury. The judge ordered Surtmers jailed pending sentencing but set no sentencing date. The charge carries a maximum penalty of 15 years in prison.

Both men have conviction records and Woods is on a parole ending June 22, 1975, Berrien sheriff's officers said their records show.

Woods drew a 4 to 10-year term Nov. 30, 1970, for assault with intent to do great bodily harm and was released on a two-year parole June 22, 1973, according to Det. James Leonard.

West drew a 2 to 10-year term on Jan. 17, 1972 for breaking and entering and was paroled April 13, 1973. It expired Oct. 13, 1974, sheriff's records show, Leonard reported.

Restrictions Are Lifted On Visitors

SOUTH HAVEN — South Haven Community hospital yesterday ended a restriction on patient visitation, a policy that had been in effect since Jan. 23, because of a flu outbreak in the area.

South Haven Man Asks Examination

SOUTH HAVEN — David Bowden, 21, of South Haven, demanded examination yesterday, when arraigned in Seventh District court on a charge of breaking an entering.

Bowden was arrested by state police from the South Haven post in connection with the May 11, 1974, entry of a grocery store in South Haven.

Bowden is awaiting trial in connection with the Nov. 20 fire that destroyed the Lappo Lumber company. Bowden had been held in the county jail on $25,000 bond in connection with the arson charge, but bond was reduced to $5,000 by Van Buren Circuit court Judge David Anderson. Police agencies opposed the reduction in bond saying witnesses in the arson case had been intimidated.

No Plans For Thieu To Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen says there is "no plan or invitation" for South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu to visit the United States.

The Nessen statement was in response to a report published Thursday by Cox Newspapers' Washington bureau stating that President Ford was thinking of inviting Thieu for an April visit during which Thieu would appeal personally for U.S. aid.

ARRESTED: This is 1969 photo of M.C. Woods who was one of two men arrested Friday after bank robbery. Woods served a prison term for the gunshot wounding of Chester Dossett in 1968. The shooting occurred in a hallway at Benton Harbor high school when Dossett and Woods were students.

Hospital officials said normal visiting hours of 2-8:30 p.m., were resumed for friends and relatives of patients because the number of flu cases in the South Haven area has diminished.

'Agnew Got Money, I Got Woes,' Says Ex-Partner

By KRISTIE HILL Associated Press Writer

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Real estate developer Walter J. Dilbeck Jr. says former Vice President Spiro T. Agnew made a lot of money and connections during their partnership and left Dilbeck all the problems.

Dilbeck made the comment Friday after Agnew announced he was terminating his one-year, $100,000 contract with Dilbeck because Dilbeck exploited their business relationship and defaulted on a final $25,000 installment.

Dilbeck, whose financial exploits included the ill-fated Global Baseball League which fizzled when all six teams got stuck in Venezuela with unpaid hotel bills, says Agnew is the exploiter.

"I haven't received a dime from him and he's taken $75,000 from me. I gave him a free ride. Everybody knew he was broke when I hired him," Dilbeck said in an interview Friday night. "He got a lot of real connections out of this deal and I got the problems."

Dilbeck said Agnew's final payment wasn't due until June 30, "but if he needs $25,000, I'd be glad to send it to him. That's what he's done before." Dilbeck, 56, said he made advances on several occasions when Agnew asked him for money.

In a letter to Dilbeck which was released to news media, Agnew said Dilbeck's "desire for publicity has violated the confidentiality of many negotiations in progress and shocked our clients."

"In the beginning, I thought the problem was your inexperience with the news media. But now I must conclude that your exaggerations and outrights misstatements of fact were a calculated scheme to promote your image at the expense of my integrity."

Dilbeck laughed off Agnew's charge that the former vice president's integrity had been jeopardized by their partnership.

"His image wasn't too good when I hired him," Dilbeck said. "In fact, a lot of companies prefer dealing directly with me."

"All I did was what he told me. But I had a feeling this was coming. I've felt he's been making other deals in the East and I don't think he's been representing me."

Dilbeck also accused Agnew of working on an autobiography instead of tending to business.

Dilbeck has said publicly that he and Agnew had nearly completed a pair of multimillion-dollar deals in Kentucky — one for homes and apartments purchased with Mideast oil money, and the other for sale of a coal mine to Japanese interests. But Dilbeck said the only deal Agnew concluded was the $2-million sale of an Oklahoma coal mine. And Dilbeck said he never received any money from that transaction.

A statement released by Dilbeck said the partnership was being terminated because "Agnew's apparent preoccupation with Arab powers (as investors) is distasteful and unsatisfactory due to Dilbeck's longstanding association with many Jewish people and interests in this country."

But Dilbeck said later, "The whole problem was he didn't want me to talk to the news media.... If he'd have stayed, he'd have made millions, because I am going to."

Dilbeck has said publicly that he and Agnew had nearly completed a pair of multimillion-dollar deals in Kentucky — one for homes and apartments purchased with Mideast oil money, and the other for sale of a coal mine to Japanese interests. But Dilbeck said the only deal Agnew concluded was the $2-million sale of an Oklahoma coal mine. And Dilbeck said he never received any money from that transaction.

A statement released by Dilbeck said the partnership was being terminated because "Agnew's apparent preoccupation with Arab powers (as investors) is distasteful and unsatisfactory due to Dilbeck's longstanding association with many Jewish people and interests in this country."

The Lancers, averaging only 58 points the last three games, exploded for their biggest scoring output of the season to roll past the Comets 94-73 in a Blossomland game at the Lakeshore gym.

The Knights almost wiped out their field goal shooting advantage and a 53 to 37 rebounding edge with a costly 34 turnovers, compared to 17 for St. Joe.

Gallen, Berrien Bumped But Keep Red Arrow Lead

Adams Brothers Carry Beavers Past Gaels

By DAVE DELANEY

Staff Sports Writer

EAU CLAIRE — There was no stopping Eau Claire here last night once the Adams scoring machine started hitting on both cylinders.

The Beaver brother duo of Terry and Bill Adams combined for 43 points to spark a 70-54 upset of top-ranked Gallen. The Gaels were tied for the Red Arrow conference lead with Berrien Springs...which also lost.

Terry, a junior, played a consistent game throughout on his way to scoring a team-high 22 points. He had 12 points by intermission, nearly half the Beaver total.

But the scoring machine was definitely limping along on one cylinder the first half as Bill Adams was held pointless for the first time this year.

"I couldn't do a thing the first half," said the Beaver standout who carried a 21.5 points per game average into this tilt. "My trouble was I wasn't getting set."

But the husky 6-1 forward redeemed himself the second half hitting 9 of 14 field goals and sinking three of four free throws.

The Beavers trailed at half-time by one, 28-25. "It was our defense that kept us in the game the first half," noted winning coach Dave Gray.

"I told the kids at halftime we weren't being patient enough taking our shots. We weren't working the ball inside," explained Gray.

Both Gray and Gael coach Mike Heckathorn agreed the turning point in the game came towards the end of the third quarter when Eau Claire converted back-to-back steals into two scoring plays.

Bill Adams made the first scoring theft, Jerry McAfee the second.

"From that point the momentum switched completely around," explained Heckathorn. "It seemed everything they did from then on was right."

The Beavers really started to turn on the steam as the fourth quarter got underway.

They ripped off six straight points to fashion a 56-46 lead and later in the period dumped in five unanswered points to go up 65-48.

At this point, subs took the floor in great numbers for both teams.

Once Eau Claire got rolling, the Gaels found it almost impossible to match the Beavers' race horse pace.

"Apparently we're not as quick getting down the floor as I thought we were," noted Heckathorn. "Other teams have started to beat us down the court."

The Gallen coach felt his team had plenty of scoring opportunities, but just couldn't cash in on them. "After a while they just blew us out," he said.

In past games, the Gaels have burned teams in the late going on their outstanding free throw shooting. The reverse of this was the case last night, as the Gaels' could make only three of 10 from the foul line during the last eight minutes of play. The Beavers got six of seven that period.

"We figured we could beat them," said Gray, "especially at home...I'm real proud of the team."

The Beaver coach felt his players did an excellent job of switching from an early zone defense to a man to man approach which they used the second half.

"I thought Nathan Lanier did a real fine job guarding Kooy (Don)," said Gray of the Gael who bagged 12 points for the night's work. "Another who takes a lot of pride in his defensive play is Terry Adams," said Gray.

Gray called it a tribute to the overall strength of his team that they were able to keep the score so close during the first half while their top scorer, Bill Adams, was in a slump.

"The team was able to take up the slack," said Gray, "and Bill shook it off the second half and came back with a good game. We were able to overwhelm them."

The Gaels took a 16-14 first quarter advantage and maintained their lead till the clock showed 5:48 to play in the third period. Al Flowers hit on a jumper at this point as the Beavers went out front for the first time, 31-30.

The winners hit on 29 of 68 field goals (43 per cent) and made 12 of 16 (75 per cent) of their free throws. Dale Luther led with 13 points, while Kooy and Dave Rock had 12 each.

Gallen made 24 of 56 of its field goals (43 per cent) and hoped free throws at a sub-par 43 per cent (6 of 14).

Rebounding went to the winners 31-20 with Bill Adams getting 10, Flowers 8. Eau Claire had 13 turnovers, the Gaels 17.

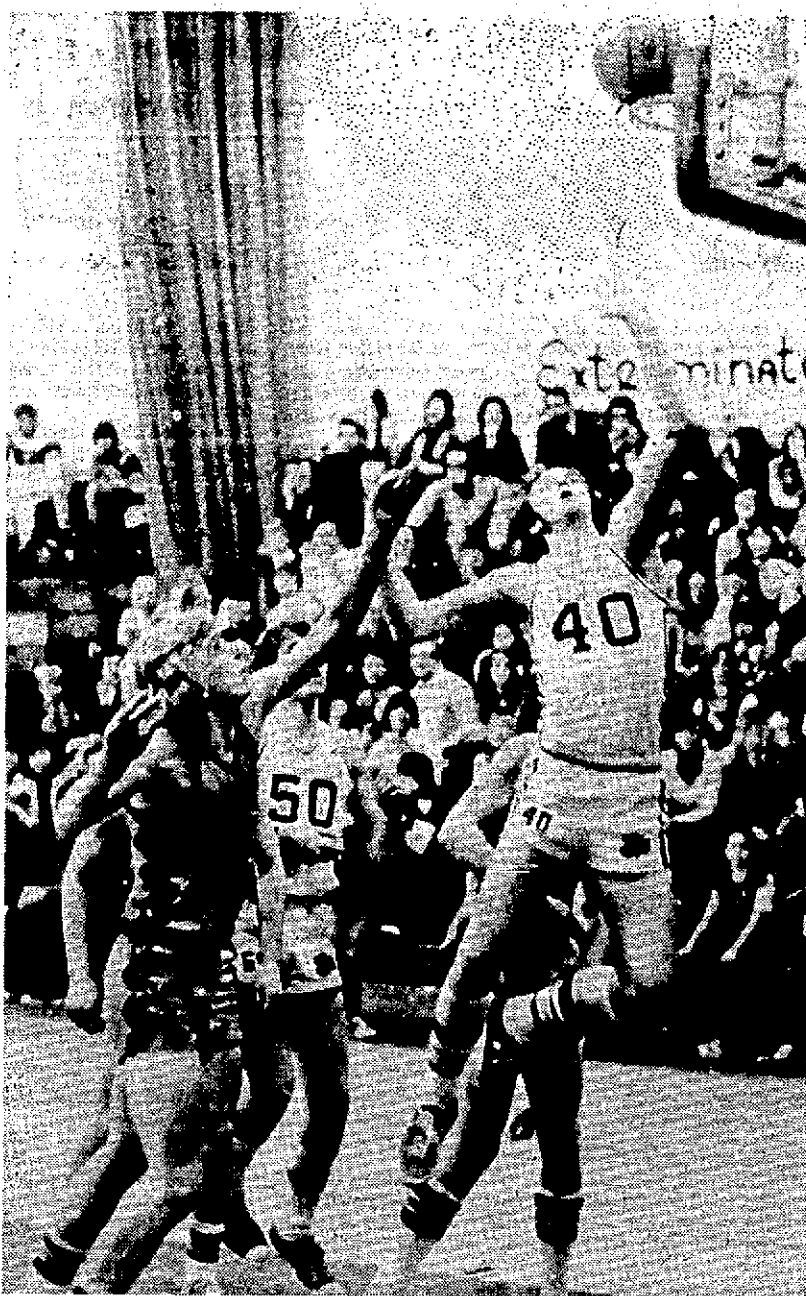

The win hikes the Eau Claire record to 8-4 in the league and 10-6 overall. The Gaels are 8-3 in the conference and 13-3 overall.

Charity Misses Help Bees

BERRIEN SPRINGS — Bridgman shocked Berrien Springs here Friday night, upending the Shamrocks 53-51.

"When it got down to the nitty gritty we couldn't buy a free throw although we went to the line many times," said Berrien coach Connie Stover. The Shamrocks missed six straight free throw attempts in the late going that could have made the difference between victory and defeat.

Even though they lost, the Shamrocks maintain their tie for first place in the Red Arrow conference with Gallen since the Gaels stumbled at Eau Claire.

"We played a good game," said Stover. "I'm not unhappy with our kids...we just couldn't get a basket when we needed it most."

"Bridgman came to play basketball," continued the coach, "and they played a whale of a game."

Stover pointed to poor free throw shooting as a big factor in the loss. The Shamrock could only sink 13 of 27 (48 per cent), but the winners really didn't do that much better sinking 15 of 27 (56 per cent).

The Bees dumped in 19 of 54 field goals (35 per cent) to 19 of 50 (32 per cent) for Berrien. The home team won the rebounding 40-31 and turned the ball over just 16 times to 25 for Bridgman.

Top rebounders for the Shamrocks were Bill Decker with 11 and Rick Thiele with nine.

Sophomore Bob Linke and Mike Schaller led the winners with 12 points, while Dale Burwell had 10. Jack Lewis finished with a game-high 16 points for the Shamrocks. Terry Hossein had 13 and Thiele 10.

The victory hikes the Bridgman record to 5-7 in the league and 8-8 overall. Berrien is 8-3 in conference play, 10-7 overall.

The Bees won the jayvee preliminary, 71-58, with John Jones bagging 18, Neal Smith 17 and Dave Zilke 14. Tim Sunday had 17 for Berrien, Steve Milano 13 and Mitch Sluder 10.

Dana Rowe 'Knock Out' In Lawrence's Victory

LAWRENCE — Dana Rowe was knocked out here Friday night... but not until he had put Marcellus down for the count.

The 5-10 senior forward was knocked unconscious while scoring a driving layup with only 12 seconds left as he led Lawrence to a thrilling 63-58 victory in a Southwestern Athletic Conference game.

Rowe actually scored four straight points in the final minute, hitting two free throws to put the Tigers ahead 60-58 and then hitting the layup to virtually wrap up the victory.

Ken LeTourneau added the game's final point on a free throw as the replacement for Rowe, who was reported in good condition after being revived with smelling salts.

Rowe finished the game with 17 points to lead a balanced scoring attack for Lawrence, which also got 12 points from Jerry Darling and 10 apiece from Lynn Boitnott and Chris Carpp.

Marcellus got most of its scoring punch from the guards, with Jimmy Mason pumping in 25 points and Rick Lewis adding 10.

Lawrence trailed by as much as 20-10 in the first half but came back to take the lead at 28-26 before Marcellus tied it at halftime 28-28 on a shot at the buzzer.

In the third quarter it was tied eight times and the pattern continued almost to the final minute with Mason scoring on a layup at 1:07 to deadlock it for the final time and set the stage for Rowe's heroics.

"This was an important win for us," said Lawrence coach Dave Baker, whose team holds sole possession of second place in the SAC with a 7-3 record — one-half game behind Decatur (7-2) and one-half game ahead of Bloomingdale (6-3).

Patience on offense paid off for the Tigers, who worked inside for good shots and hit 28 of 54 for an excellent .518 average.

Marcellus got off 33 more shots but wound up with one less basket, hitting only 27 of 87 (.310) from the field.

Free throws added little to the total, with Lawrence sinking 7 of 13 and Marcellus 4 of 9.

The victory was the 11th in the last 12 games for Lawrence and gives the Tigers an overall 12-4 record. Marcellus now is 6-5 in the SAC and 9-8 for the season.

Drug Official Clears NFL Of 'Con' Woman Charges

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "I'm sure Rodie is going to write a book on this — she'll make a million dollars," a federal drug official said Friday as he dismissed as unsubstantiated a young woman's allegations that she acted as a drug courier for professional athletes.

A month-long investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration failed to support any of the statements made by Roxie Ann Rice involving National Football League players, said Thomas H. Maher, special agent in charge. Describing the 19-year-old St. Louis woman as a "very good con woman" and an experienced impersonator, Maher said she "used" the NFL players in a two-month odyssey late last season that took her to 16 cities.

Maher said the federal investigation has "determined that her movements and involvements with members of the NFL were not concerned with drug activity."

"She enticed people as a result of ruses," he told a news conference. "I think the NFL people were extremely gullible."

The federal agent's remarks were welcomed by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who said the league's investigation concurred with that of the DEA.

"Unfortunately, as has happened in the past, because of the widespread publicity given to the irresponsible allegations, the results do not fully remove the stigma placed on some players and therefore on the league as a whole," Rozelle said.

The story of Miss Rice's travels posing as a journalist, medical researcher and doctor from the African nation of Ghana was disclosed last month following her arrest on charges of defrauding an innkeeper and fraudulent use of a credit card.

In a police memorandum, she detailed how she traveled in late 1974, supposedly to provide NFL players with drugs. There also were statements implicating the American Basketball Association players, too, were discounted by Maher.

He told reporters her travels began at about the same time an issue of Ebony Magazine appeared in which several black NFL players were pictured. He said some of them were the same players Miss Rice mentioned in her report to police.

Miss Rice would telephone players in advance, Maher said, using different voices and names.

According to the police memo, she alleged that she carried briefcases in which there were packets she believed to contain drugs. She said she met players from the Washington Redskins, Houston Oilers, St. Louis Cardinals, San Diego Chargers, Detroit Lions, Kansas City Chiefs and Cincinnati Bengals.

NFL players who said they had spoken with Miss Rice during her travels told the same story as related Friday by Maher. All said there were no drugs involved.

"As far as we can tell," said

Maher, "she was doing all this on her own." He added that the federal investigation had failed to disclose any persons who Miss Rice claimed she helped in her journeys.

The young woman financed her trip through a credit card which was allegedly stolen from Ken Houston of the Redskins, the agent said.

The DEA began its investigation after Miss Rice was arrested Jan. 4 in St. Louis on the misdemeanor charges of defrauding an innkeeper and fraudulent use of a credit card. Investigators interviewed about 10 key NFL players mentioned by Miss Rice in the police memo and visited five or six cities, Maher said.

Miss Rice is free on bail pending a reappearance in court March 3 to face the charges.

Maher said "there are extortion possibilities" in the actions of Miss Rice and he said his office's report would be sent within a week to the U.S. attorney for possible action against her.

Bulls Romp Past Pistons

Walker Sinks 23 In Key Chicago Victory

CHICAGO (AP) — "This is the best Bulls team I've ever coached," said Dick Motta Friday after his Chicago Bulls had pulled into a two-game lead in the Midwest Division of the National Basketball Association with a key 95-83 victory over the Detroit Pistons.

"We may have had better personnel," said Motta, "but as a team their defense and knowhow is the best I have ever had."

The Bulls made Motta a perfect prophet Friday night as they turned back Detroit with ease. Chet Walker's over-the-shoulder hook shot and a hot-hand by Rowland Garrett dealt the Pistons their loss.

The victory was the 20th in the last 28 games for the Bulls. The loss was the fourth in the last five games for the Pistons.

Motta praised the play of guard Norm Van Lier and said, "He has made this team click. And now that he is licking his biggest problem, namely, his temper, there's no telling how well he can play."

Motta said he is not worried about how his team shoots.

"I am not worried about being bumped out of first place because the pressure will be on the other teams," he said.

Coach Ray Scott of the Pistons said, "We had to play rookies tonight because Dave Bing and John Mengert were sick. I don't like to play them because they make mistakes but I was impressed with Bill Ligon. To say the least I was frustrated because this team is not playing the way it is capable."

The Bulls held Bob Lanier, Detroit's big gun, to six points in the third quarter and made the Pistons miss five straight shots as Walker led all players with 23 points.

The Boston Celtics finished their latest serenade Friday night but the beat goes on for the New Orleans Jazz.

While the Celtics' 11-game National Basketball Association winning streak suffered a 98-95 demise at the hands of the Philadelphia 76ers, the Jazz hit the road for the 28th time...and for the 28th time the road hit back. This time, the bad guys were the Milwaukee Bucks and the bad numbers were 119-98.

Elsewhere, the Buffalo Braves downed the Los Angeles Lakers 108-98, the Washington Bullets trounced the Seattle SuperSonics 99-76 and the Houston Rockets trimmed the Atlanta Hawks 105-87.

Milwaukee, led by Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's 35 points, withstood a 27-point barrage by Pete Maravich to defeat New Orleans. Jon McGlocklin tied his season high with 18 for the Bucks, who broke a slump of six defeats in eight games and handed New Orleans its 28th defeat in as many road games.

The Bucks, on five points by McGlocklin, outscored New Orleans 8-2 in the last two minutes of the first half to lead 54-44. Abdul-Jabbar and Mickey Davis scored eight points apiece in the third quarter as the Bucks opened a 22-point lead.

Billy Cunningham scored 33 points to lead Philadelphia past the World Champions.

Jack Martin and Ken Charles came off the bench and powered Buffalo past Los Angeles.

Phil Chenier scored 28 points to pace Washington.

Bies Forges Past Miller Into Bob Hope Golf Lead

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — There was a rather wistful quality to Don Bies' voice as he observed: "I feel that somewhere along the way I deserve to win one."

He hasn't yet. In six full years on the pro golf tour the slender, soft-spoken, 37-year-old Bies has won more than $200,000 in prize money — but he has yet to collect a title.

Pirates Sign Stargell, Ray

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates have signed two more players to 1975 contracts, including slugging left-fielder Willie Stargell, who batted .301 last year and hit 25 home runs.

Also signed Thursday was Jim Ray, a pitcher acquired in the off-season from Detroit where he had a 1-3 record and a 4.50 earned run average. The Pirates have now signed five players.

He took a major step in the right direction Friday, though, when he slipped, almost unobserved, past suddenly scrambling Johnny Miller and into the third-round lead in the $160,000 Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic.

Bies, a low-key type who attracts no galleries, has no idiosyncrasies, dresses conservatively and blends into the crowd, took his surprise lead with a six-under-par 68 that vaulted him one stroke in front of the phenomenal Miller and Tom Shaw, a still-bubbly character despite three years of trials and troubles.

Bies had a 54-hole total of 204, 10 under par with 38 holes to go in this unique, five-day, 90-hole event that is spread over four desert courses.

Miller, who established a three-stroke lead after two rounds and appeared ready to score another runaway victory, and Shaw were one back at 205. Miller went to a scramble par 72 and Shaw had a 69.

John Mahaffey, Jerry Heard and veteran Miller Barber were one more back at 206. Heard had a four-under-par 68, Mahaffey and Barber each a 69.

Arnold Palmer, still fighting a balky putter, shot a 71 that he called "kinda boring." The five-time winner of this tournament was seven shots behind at 211. Lee Trevino, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player are not competing.

Miller, a record-setting winner of the first two tournaments of the year and the young man who has dominated the game for the past 14 months, suddenly developed some problems but shrugged it off.

"I'm human. I make mistakes, too," he said.

His putting, which had been unapproachable in the first two rounds, turned ordinary. He three-putted once. He made bogey from a bunker. He hit one out of bounds.

"That sums up my round," he said. "The three-putt and the ball out of bounds — without them I have something like a 68 and that's not bad. I just didn't putt too good and I made some mistakes."

when I called upon them they went out there and did a job."

MacTavish used all subs the second quarter. The reserves earned a hot 10 of 17 shots but 12 turnovers allowed Coloma to come within 49-38 at the half.

With the regulars back in, Lakeshore tallied the first six points of the third period and went on to take an unbeatable 72-51 advantage into the final period.

Lakeshore, which with the 94 points almost doubled its 48-point output of last week Friday against Valley, flipped in 41 of 88 shots for 48 per cent. The subs were even warmer than the starters as they swished 18 of 29 shots outcourt for 55 per cent. Reserves Arent was four of six, Porter five of nine and Mason three of five. Starter Holland was eight of 12.

Coloma was 32 of 84 for 38 per cent but only 33 per cent the second half. Woodward was 11 of 24 and Schreiber eight of 21.

The Comets, which lost the boards 44-35 according to their charts, sank nine of 20 free throws, Lakeshore 12 of 20.

The game produced a total of 97 turnovers with the Lancers ending with 29, Coloma 28.

Lakeshore, which travels to Brandywine Tuesday night, is now 9-7 overall with three league games left. Coloma falls to 2-14.

Larry Toth notched 22 and Jim Rosenhagen 11 as the Lancers won the Jayvee game 58-52. Keith Penoyar netted 14 and Dennis Nitz 11 for the Comets.

Hot-Shooting Grand Rapids Sweeps Past LMC, 104-61

GRAND RAPIDS — As far as Lake Michigan College basketball coach Art Crump is concerned, his Indians' encounter with Grand Rapids here Friday night was a game to forget.

"We were as cold as the weather," said Crump whose team was buried 104-61. "They could do no wrong...we could do no right."

The Raiders burned the net with 68 per cent field goal shooting (45 of 66) and paired this with 70 per cent accuracy at the free throw line (14 of 20). "It didn't seem like they missed that many," noted the LMC coach.

"We simply stood around watching them play ball," said Crump of the loss, which was a team effort on LMC's part.

The Indians, playing one of their worst games of the year, hit on only 25 of 80 field goals (33 per cent) and put away 11 of 14 (79 per cent) of their free throws. The winners won the rebounding 32-24. Turnovers were 29 for LMC, 25 for the Raiders. Grand Rapids had a quartet in double figures, led by 25 points from Jim Sheekler. Three Lake Michigan players struck in double digits: Reggie Walker had 14, Andrew Atebury 11 and John Taylor 10. Grand Rapids is now tied for the conference lead with Muskegon with a 9-4 conference showing. The Indians are 3-10 and 8-16 overall.

Frankfort Shocks Glen Lake 67-65

FRANKFORT, Mich. (AP) — Guards Mike Fought and Jim McConnell each scored 22 points to help Frankfort stun previously unbeaten Maple City Glen Lake 67-65 in prep basketball Friday night.

Glen Lake, now 16-1, is ranked fifth in Class C.

Both teams had 31 field goals, but Frankfort sank five free throws in three for Glen Lake

In an unrelated matter, Campbell said the decision Friday against an extra inter-league trading period was "unexpected" and that he was, "very, very disappointed by it."

The additional trade span was set to run from March 15 through March 31, but the Major League Players Association ruled against it.

Owners had voted on the trading period at their winter meetings in December. But it would have had to be agreed upon by the players' group.

"I have been here 11 years, and never complained. For years I have seen guys come

Senior Citizens Can Now Swap Homes, Cities

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Senior citizens living on fixed incomes in low-income public housing can't afford to travel, see new sights and have fun, right?

Not necessarily.

Senior citizens now can swap homes and cities in an federal experiment called the "Vacation Residential Exchange" program.

Portland is one of six cities involved in the program, sponsored by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"I can't think of a more fantastic idea than this one," said Fred Rosenbaum, chairman of the Housing Authority of Portland. "Darn it, why shouldn't elderly people in public housing have a vacation just like anyone else?"

"These are people who've worked all their lives, paid their bills, paid their taxes, maybe put their kids through college," he said. "Now, at age 65, why shouldn't they be able to kick up their heels a little?"

Beginning April 21, twenty senior citizens living in two housing authority high-rise structures will swap places with 20 others from Sacramento, Calif., for 10 days.

Travel will be by plane and train. The project includes an exchange of apartments, beds and bedding, and friends in what HEW officials hope will be burgen into a nationwide program.

Paint-Stripper's Discovery Began With Garbage Can

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Ever strip the paint or varnish from a table or a cabinet? If so, you know what a messy and usually tedious job it can be.

I talked the other day with a man who has stripped such things as a racing car, a 19th-century railroad station and a mansion. Since the process involved dipping the items to be stripped into a tank of chemicals, it took some doing to handle the above mentioned things.

But it was accomplished by dismantling the car, the station and parts of the mansion that required treatment.

The mansion parts, for instance, had to be brought to the work area in Walton, N.Y., in a huge flatbed truck.

The wood turned out to have more than 20 coats of paint on it, necessitating two weeks' attention.

The man who accomplished these feats, and hundreds of others over the years, is Eric Houck, whose finely chiseled beard and smock-like attire give him the appearance of an artist.

He told me how he got by accident into the business of removing paint, varnish and other coatings.

A junior high school dropout, he worked as a cab driver and gas station attendant until 1966, when he took a job as a janitor at Delhi Technical College, where he was later trained to become a steam fitter.

One day, while degreasing steam fittings in a garbage can filled with a chemical compound, Houck noticed that the paint stick, which he was using to fish out the brass fittings, was being cleaned and stripped of paint.

Curious, he dipped an old varnished chair into the compound and took it out in 30 seconds. It was stripped clean.

After months of experimenting, Houck developed a chemical mixture that was nonflammable and nontoxic and could be rinsed off with water.

He bought a butter vat and some equipment and started his own business in a rented milk house. Without sufficient funds, he depended on word-of-mouth advertising to build up his business.

It produced some results, but not enough. He then placed a small ad in a local newspaper. The next day he had more work than he could handle.

Houck moved his operation to a creamery, bought a huge tank and had to hire help.

Today, there are more than 200 of his stripping centers across the country.

There must be a moral here, but I'm not sure what it is. Could it just be that newspaper advertising pays?

Firm's Fire Repairs OK'd

WATERVLIET — A permit to remodel the fire-damaged office of Rose Die Cast company, Godfrey court, was issued during January by William Gaines, Watervliet township building inspector.

The permit went to George Rose, owner of the business hit by fire during December, 1974.

The permit was for remodeling the interior surface of the structure. Estimated cost: $5,000.

Other permits were issued to Earl F. Grant Jr., route 2, box 756, to erect a 24 by 24-foot garage, $1,000.

Walter B. Gerhardt, 706 Lake avenue, to improve and add storage shed with aluminum siding, $3,000.

Rocco Bertucca, 481 Shady drive, repair wind damage to building, $400.

Here's the Answer

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Q — Can I use enamel over an old varnished surface?

A — In nearly all cases, yes. Once in a while, the stain on the wood will bleed through. If you want to be 100 per cent certain, apply an enamel undercoat to a small area and wait a couple of days. If no discoloration shows, it is safe to proceed with undercoating. If bleeding does occur, apply a coat of stain sealer. Wait at least 24 hours, and very lightly, wipe off the dust and then go ahead with the undercoating.

New Garage For Watervliet

It went to James Morrison, 321 First street, Watervliet, to build a 20 by 24-foot garage at an estimated cost of $600.

50-50 Mix Is Popular For Shellac

Shellac and honey have one thing in common. Each is the product of an insect.

The lac bug of India converts the sap of trees into a gum-like material that becomes liquid shellac when diluted with alcohol.

Shellac has retained its popularity over the years partly because it can be used as a sealer, an undercoat or a final finish, but mainly because it is easy to use and dries rapidly.

A widely recommended mixture of equal parts of shellac and denatured alcohol will handle most jobs and is the least likely to cause any problems.

PRESIDENT HOMES

CUSTOM BUILT PRE-CUT HOMES ... OUR ONLY BUSINESS

One of the most useful guides for a family when the decision is reached to purchase a home, is a chart of wants and capabilities. Should they: 1) build, 2) buy in a new subdivision, 3) buy a new custom-built house, 4) buy a house a few years old, or 5) buy an older house?

Head up columns on paper for each of these, then list the factors important to the family down the side. The family now has the basis for a chart. By factors, we mean such considerations as nearness to work, shopping, transportation, size of the house, modern conveniences, maintenance, low price, financing, and others.

Using a scale of 1 to 5, the lowest number the most desirable, rate each factor within the five types of housing. "Nearness to work" might rate a 1 in an older house, but 5 in a new subdivision. The subdivision house, however, could rate 1 in "modern conveniences" with the older house rating 5.

When the ratings are entered, added and compared, the family has at least a rough idea of what type of house would best suit its wants and income. Then a decision can be reached as to what is possible.

If income is limited to financing a $20,000 home, you cannot choose to build on a close-in lot for $40,000, no matter how desirable the chart says the more expensive house will be. Wants must be balanced against reality. Facing reality also helps when the family consults a Realtor. He knows what range of houses on the market, or coming on the market, might suit them.

As an added dividend, it heads off discouragement. Now prospective homeowners can visualize and set their hearts on a particular house, not really facing its shortcomings as far as they are concerned — shortcomings they often had not even considered. Then when they decide not to buy the particular home they had wanted, its reaction they sometimes decide not to buy at all. The situation is not really that bad.

It is rare indeed when a house completely satisfies all the wants of its owners. How many times have you complimented a homeowner on his house only to hear something like: "Thank you. We like it, but we do wish it had a family room," or "If it were only a little larger!" or "It's too much house for us," or some other shortcoming?

The realistic approach is to seek a house that satisfies most wants without trying to satisfy all. Later, after the family has built up an equity, perhaps they will then want to sell, using the accumulated capital to have a whirl at finding a house closer to satisfying all of their wants.

This attitude also allows a family to abide by general rules of thumb. A rough rule, for instance, is that monthly payments should not exceed 20% of family income. Should the family ignore this and spend 30% because the neighborhood is good and income will rise later anyway, they could find themselves not able to afford the cultural pursuits, clothes, cars, and other necessities the neighbors take for granted.

More often than not this generates a feeling of not belonging, a situation especially hard on children who want to keep pace with the other children in their peer group. The whole family would have a considerably better chance at happiness where income levels are comparable. Later, if income does rise and they want to move into the more expensive neighborhood, they can.

A chart is only a helpful tool at best — a way of sorting out emotions. Buying a house is a very emotional experience. Why this is true is mixed up in memories, drives, desires and instincts. Whatever the reason, even a little idea that helps guide the emotions to high satisfaction is well worth trying. Ball corporation, Muncie, Ind., has announced that unaudited figures indicate the company's 1974 sales and earnings reached all-time high levels.

President John W. Fisher reported Ball's domestic sales reached $270 million compared to $212 in 1973. Net income was $9.5 million in 1974 ($2.05 per share) compared to $7.2 million in 1973 ($1.55 per share).

Results for 1974 are stated after provision for a last-in, first-out inventory charge of 31 cents a share ($1.4 million).

"During the year we have been able to increase dividends for shareholders and provide more than 8,000 jobs in 25 plant locations," he added.

"We accomplished this record by supplying quality products and services to our customers."

Fisher reported fourth-quarter sales were $64 million, compared to $52 million in 1973. Quarterly net income was approximately $2.3 million or 49 cents a share, compared to 1973's fourth quarter of $2.1 million or 45 cents a share.

To adjust for the effect of price level changes on inventories and to match increasing current costs of glass operations with current revenues, the company has changed to the last-in, first-out (LIFO) method of accounting for its glass container inventories.

This change reduced inventory values at year-end by $2.9 million, and net income by $1.4 million or 31 cents a share for the year.

Fisher said the accounting change will increase the company's cash flow. Ball, he added, for many years has used the LIFO method of accounting for its zinc inventories.

All lines of business, Fisher said, reported improved performance over 1973, with particularly outstanding results in metal products, rubber and plastic products, glass containers including home canning products, and petroleum equipment and engineering areas.

Ball corporation is the parent firm of Ball Rubber and Plastics division, St. Joseph.

Stocks Hold To Early Gains

By CHET CURRIER
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market withstood the jolts of the nation's highest unemployment rate since World War II and a dividend cut by General Motors to add a little to its sharp January gain this past week.

New York Stock Exchange volume, at an estimated 128.35 million shares, was second only to the previous week's 145.88 million in exchange history.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials, with sharp gains Monday and Wednesday and slight losses in the other three sessions, advanced 8.22 to 711.91.

Standard & Poor's 500-stock index rose 1.65 to 78.63, and the NYSE composite index was up .89 at 41.80.

The principal forces behind the continued gains appeared to be falling interest rates and the excitement created by the rising prices and surging activity of the previous week, when the Dow climbed more than 37 points.

After Tuesday's close the Federal Reserve lowered its discount rate — the rate it charges on loans to member commercial banks — to 6 1/2 per cent, posting the second half-point cut in the influential rate in a month.

The next day the Fed reported its open market committee had voted three times between mid-November and early January to pursue a more stimulative monetary policy because of the economic slump.

And New York's Morgan Guaranty Trust, the nation's fifth-largest bank, lowered its prime lending rate from 9 per cent to 8 1/2 per cent.

Morgan thus became the first big money-center bank to drop the basic rate on corporate loans below 9 per cent in nearly a year.

No other big banks followed Morgan's lead immediately, although the 8 1/2 per cent rate was expected to spread soon.

The Dow dropped more than 12 points in an early selloff Friday interrupted by a computer failure that caused a 36-minute trading halt on the NYSE.

The exchange said that some of its final figures Friday might not be accurate because of the equipment problems.

At midday Friday prices began a gradual recovery which brokers credited to buying by investors attracted to stocks in the recent rally who were waiting for a dip to move in.

In all, 1,211 Big Board issues gained and 821 declined among the 2,066 traded.

Eighty stocks recorded 1974-75 highs, against seven new lows.

General Motors, which caused a considerable stir late Monday when it lowered its dividend to 60 cents a share from the 85 cents it paid in each quarter last year, lost 2 1/2 to 35 1/4 for the week.

Sony, the week's most active issue, rose 1 1/2 to 7 1/4 amid some block trading that suggested institutional interest.

The American Stock Exchange market value index rose .88 to 75.08.

Split Sessions At BH Market Is WSAM Topic

Should the Benton Harbor Fruit Market operate two daily sessions, one for the sale of unclassified fruit to day buyers and the other for the sale of classified fruit to "season buyers?"

This is one question that will be raised Monday night at 8 when Women for the Survival of Agriculture in Michigan (WSAM) meet at the St. Joseph Catholic church, Watervliet.

The subject of WSAM's monthly meeting will be how to get more good out of the market, says Mrs. Mildred Schultz, WSAM vice president. Anybody with ideas about how to improve the market or an interest in it is invited.

WSAM invited a buyer, a farmer, and Market Manager Al Braudo, to take part in a panel discussion. According to Braudo, who took over the market last summer, there are several problems to be solved in order to make the market "a better place to bring fruit." Braudo listed other problems: One is the scarcity of day buyers. Another is that it takes so much time to get fruit on and off the market. Are facilities adequate for big buyers? Can improvements speed the marketing of fruit?

Ask Them Yourself

Want to ask a famous person a question? Send the question on a postcard, to "Ask," Family Weekly, 641 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. 10022. We'll pay $5 for published questions. Sorry, we can't answer others.

FOR HAROLD ROBBINS, author of "The Pirate," "The Carpetbaggers," "The Adventurers," "Where Love Has Gone" and other best-selling novels

Have you ever watched anybody reading your books and looking bored?—G. B., Green Bay, Wis.

● I've been writing for 30 years and, thankfully, have been spared that dreadful sight. However, on the subway once I saw two teenagers holding copies of "Never Love a Stranger," my first novel. They were discussing it, leafing through the pages and pointing to certain sections. I was so interested, I moved closer and closer—and ended up with my face on the girl's shoulder. She said something in a loud voice, which I can't repeat, and moved to another seat. I was mortified! I should have introduced myself, I guess, but I was too embarrassed. I never found out what they were saying.

FOR LEON JAWORSKI, former Watergate prosecutor

Who was the most influential person in your life?—G. Hoffman, Waterbury, Conn.

● As a child, it was my father. My mother died when I was three, and my dad immediately became two parents rolled into one for me. In later life, it has been my wife (we've been married for 43 years).

FOR KATHY LENNON

I had always read that you Lennon girls felt your children and homes came first. How do you explain going off to Las Vegas to perform?—M. O. A., Indio, Calif.

● We go away from home only three times a year at the most, for three weeks at a time. But we have our children and husbands with us. We turn the trips into vacations, and we love it, because none of us has household help! This year we even talked Mom into coming to Las Vegas with us, so she had the first vacation she's had in years!

FOR MRS. VIDAL SASSOON, wife of the hair stylist

● I wouldn't know—because Vidal's not home all the time. He travels a great deal to our branches in the U.S. and Europe. And when he's here, I go to his salon—just like other women. Vidal still can't get used to the idea that when I go, I bring my own shampoo, which was specially prescribed for me by a dermatologist because I have oily skin.

FOR JOSE FELICIANO

You've said that blindness has never been an obstacle. Can you get involved in sports?—D. B., Salinas, Calif.

● You bet! I love to sail, water-ski and fish. I also go horseback riding whenever I have the chance. My favorite mare is "Herman." Later this year I'm going to Aspen to learn how to ski.

FOR DON MEREDITH, sportscaster-actor

Why did you quit announcing Monday night football games?—Bill Graham, Herman, Calif.

● Some genius determined that just one game on Monday night attracted more viewers than "Gone With the Wind," "The Sound of Music" and several other films combined. I am not completely pure of mind and spirit, but I knew this was crazy. I got disappointed in myself and felt I had to get away. I had lost my taste for the show and was doing too many things I didn't like.

FOR JEANE DIXON, seeress

You predicted Mr. Nixon would come through Watergate successfully. Do you think your prediction has come true?—Mrs. Merlin Brough, Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif.

● I still feel that Mr. Nixon will go down in history as a great President.

FOR MARY BACON, jockey

What are the pros and cons of being a woman in "a man's field?"—S. P., Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

● Many people still believe a woman belongs at home, not on the track, no matter how well she proves her ability to ride. So the best part is self-satisfaction and the weekly paycheck. This is the only way I can support myself and my daughter. Also, it's lots of fun—until you break that first bone.

FOR TINY TIM

However did you pick such a name for yourself?—T. S., Little Rock, Ark.

● Not because of my size, that's for sure. I'm 6-1 and 205 pounds. As a school dropout named Herbert Khaury (my real name), I got my first job delivering film cans for MGM in New York. Then I got into show business and became "Larry Love" in the '50s. I didn't care for that too much and changed it to "Darry Dove," which was followed by "Sir Timothy Thames." "Tiny Tim," dreamed up by my manager, was "born" in Greenwich Village in 1963.

FOR THE ASK THEM YOURSELF EDITOR

Could you tell me something about Peter Allen, Liza Minnelli's ex-husband?—M. O., Spartanburg, S.C.

● He planned to be a piano tuner in Australia, his home, and in his spare time formed a musical act with his friend Chris, who later became his partner. During her 1967 Australian tour, Judy Garland caught their act, was impressed by it and invited them to London to open her Palladium show. That's where Peter met Judy's daughter Liza. Three years later, on the day Liza and Peter separated, he met comedian David Steinberg, who suggested Peter become a songwriter. He was then signed by A & M Records, which released his first album, "Continental American." He recently appeared at New York's Reno Sweeney, and will go on a club and concert tour. He lives in New York, enjoys being "single," and has no immediate plans to remarry.

My Favorite Valentine Memory...

Loving-Sad-Funny Stories From "The Day of Hearts"

Compiled by Anita Summer

We decided Valentine's Day was the perfect time to find out, once and for all, "Are women more romantic than men and do they place a greater emphasis on sentimental things, such as important dates?"

So we polled many of the celebrities who are popular with FAMILY WEEKLY readers. The women led by an overwhelming majority—they had no problems immediately recalling their favorite Valentine's Day stories; on the other hand, the men who did come up with something needed a lot of time to think, and to some of them, February 14 appears to be no different from any other day.

HUGH O'BRIAN

Five years ago, Hugh O'Brian sent two dozen red roses to a very special lady, but she never received them. The florist did deliver on time but, instead of the actor's handpicked, long-stemmed blooms, what she got was a funeral wreath with a card reading, "My deepest sympathy."

"Needless to say, there was a mix-up in the orders," shuddered O'Brian. "My gorgeous bouquet—with its message, 'I miss you and love you'—was sent to the funeral parlor, addressed to the deceased. At first, my lady friend was horrified when she saw the wreath, and thought this was my perverted and bizarre way of breaking off our romance. But fortunately, her common sense and sense of humor came to the rescue, and she realized she had been the victim of a dreadful error."

JERRY STILLER

"When Anne [Meara] slunk up to me every February 14 with lowered eyelids, whispering seductively, 'Do you know what today is?' I'd say, 'Sure, it's Tuesday,' or whatever. Then she'd march out of the room and sulk. Finally, a couple of years ago, our club opening fell on Valentine's Day (I didn't know—I was told), so I thought I'd use my head for a change. I went on first and when I introduced Annie, I did it like this: 'Meet my sweetheart. Not just today. She's my girl every day of the year.'

Tyler Thornton

THE DAY NANCY O'CONNOR REMEMBERS

"The Valentine's Day I remember best," said Nancy O'Connor, wife of TV's Carroll O'Connor, "happened exactly 20 years ago, in 1955. Carroll and I were living with his mother in Forest Hills, N.Y., and on Valentine's Day the two of them went off to Mass. Now I knew Carroll doesn't believe in what he calls 'commercial holidays,' so I wasn't expecting anything from him. In fact, I suspected he wasn't even aware it was Valentine's Day. You can imagine my surprise when, returning from church, he walked in with a heart-shaped box of candy! 'Why, Carroll,' I said, 'this is very sweet of you!' 'Yeah,' he said. 'It's a good thing I went to Mass with my mother. I'd have never thought of it if she hadn't reminded me.' Well, that's my husband! But I was terribly pleased!"

DELLA REESE

"I use February 14 as the day to remember all the men in my life. Not just boyfriends, but business associates too. I show them I care by sending floral arrangements. (Why are they only sent to women? Men enjoy flowers too!) My beau gets gardenias and my colleagues get plants. When they receive them, they know I really do care." Miss Reese says her Valentine florist bill runs to $250.

MARLO THOMAS

"When I was in seventh grade, I received the prettiest unsigned Valentine's Day card with a tender message ('I'll love you forever from near and far—Signed, Your Secret Admirer'). There was a boy in the class I had a crush on. I hoped (and prayed) he was the sender. In a very unobvious way I simppered, 'Thanks for your note.' He stared at me blankly. He wasn't the one. I never found out who it was. It still bothers me, and it's not too late for him to own up! I call that my 'Agatha Christie Valentine's Day card.'"

JOEY AND CINDY ADAMS

While Joey and Cindy Adams were visiting Indonesia, President Sukarno asked if they could buy him Valentine's Day presents for his four wives and 12 concubines. He wanted 16 identical blouses, in a shade that matched the sky-blue of a painting in his palace. Adams said it would be impossible to remember the color, so Sukarno took the painting off the wall and gave it to Adams to take back to the U.S. for reference. The 16 blouses (in the right blue) were duly shipped off to Indonesia. "What should I do with the painting?" Joey then asked Sukarno. "Keep it," he was told. "It's your Valentine's Day present." That objet d'art, worth $250,000, is now the Adams' prized possession.

JIMMY COCO

Jimmy Coco had a dinner date on Valentine's Day and decided to give the girl a box of his favorite fudge. "She was late: I was getting bored and hungry, and to pass the time started sneaking candy out of the box. It was yummy, so I took more—and so on. By the time she was ready, I'd finished the whole box.

Naturally, the edge was off my appetite and I didn't eat with my usual gusto. My date was worried—she'd never seen me off my feed before—and I was too embarrassed to explain. Anyway, I made it up to her on the way home with an enormous box of chocolates and a special big kiss."

LYNN REDGRAVE

"I was in love for the first time at 14. I met a boy at a dance and fell for him like a ton of bricks. We exchanged addresses and started corresponding. He signed his first letter, 'Yours sincerely.' I was bolder in my closing when I answered. His reply was encouraging—he wrote, 'Best wishes.' To that I responded, 'Love, yours.' The next communication from him was a Valentine's Day card, with a mushy message and a note swearing everlasting love. And that," said Lynn, "was the last time I ever heard from him!"

KATHRYN CROSBY

"Before Bing left my hospital room, he handed me a huge roll of surgical dressing and said, 'Give this to the doctor and say it's a new kind of bandage. But it's in a tangle, so rewind it first,'" recalled Kathryn Crosby. Attached to the end of the roll she found an enamel box from Fabergé that contained a small heart-shaped brooch. "I was so excited and touched by it," said Kathy, "and it seemed like the good omen I needed." It was. The report was negative; the lump was benign. As far as Mrs. Crosby is concerned, nothing could ever surpass that Valentine's Day.

Country Sunshine Eggs

In a bowl, beat 4 eggs. Stir in 1/4 cup cottage cheese, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. In a 10-inch skillet, heat 1 tablespoon butter till just hot enough to make a drop of water sizzle; pour in egg mixture. Cook slowly over low heat, turning sections with spatula as it cooks. (Serves 12)
Blend 1/2 cup dairy sour cream and 1/2 cup mayonnaise. Add 1/2 cup cheddar cheese, 1/2 cup grated Swiss cheese, 1/2 cup grated Swiss cheese into sour cream. ## THE HAMILTON MINT PRESENTS The Official Krewe of Poseidon 2ND ANNUAL MARDI GRAS KING'S INGOT

MARDI GRAS, the traditional carnival of joy and delight, costumes, romance and uninhibited fun will be celebrated in New Orleans on February 11, 1975. Gaiety will reign supreme with colorful floats, costumed revelers and extravagant parades—all are an annual part of this exuberant celebration to usher in the Lenten Season.

Since 1857, Louisiana Societies called Krewe have organized and sponsored parades, balls and other Mardi Gras festivities. During "Carnival", Krewe members parade and revel in masks and fancy dress. Each Krewe also produces special "doubletons" to commemorate Mardi Gras. These prized collector pieces have been virtually impossible for the general public to obtain.

But now, to make a collector's piece that will be a treasured heirloom, the famous Poseidon Krewe of New Orleans has appointed and authorized The Hamilton Mint to strike The Official Poseidon Krewe Mardi Gras King's Ingot.

H. Alvin Sharpe, the only living master of the demanding intaglio method of engraving and himself a resident of historic New Orleans, has been commissioned to design and engrave this special ingot. The result is an astonishingly beautiful and imaginative work of medallion art.

THE MARDI GRAS KING'S INGOT

Struck from one ounce of .999 Fine Silver, the finest and purest available, each proof quality gleaming ingot will contain 480 grains of precious metal. The obverse side of the ingot depicts the mythical figure of Poseidon, namesake of the

AVAILABLE IN SOLE SILVER AND 24KT GOLD ON SILVER

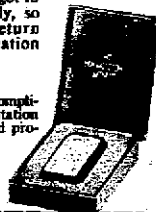

You may order this magnificent ingot in .999 Fine Silver for $12.50 or you can purchase the ingot in brilliant 24Kt Gold on Silver for just $17.50. Each ingot will bear your own personal serial number and The Hamilton Mint Hallmark. And each will be accompanied by a registered Certificate of Authenticity attesting to the limited edition status and precious metal content.

A STRICTLY LIMITED EDITION

The edition will be strictly limited to those Collector's Applications postmarked by March 15, 1975. Once the edition has been closed, The Hamilton Mint is not authorized to accept any further applications, and orders received after March 15 will be regretfully returned. The demand for last year's ingot was enormous, and we expect the 1975 King's Ingot to be collected just as avidly, so please complete and return your Collector's Application without delay.

Free Presentation Case

Quick Bean Chowder Takes 15 Minutes!

Tips 'n' Topics

LAZY COOK'S TRICK

When making a mix-in-one main dish, stir it up in the greased casserole. This saves an extra bowl and cuts down on after-dinner cleanup.

HOW TO STORE BREAD

Enriched bread is a perishable food. It is one of the few perishable products made from relatively non-perishable ingredients—like wheat and flour. The way bread is stored affects its eating qualities. Enriched bread may be stored in the refrigerator to retard mold, but the longer the refrigeration period, the firmer the bread becomes. Refrigeration tends to increase staling. Special wrappers or containers do not offset the effects of cool temperature on bread freshness. Freezing bread for a short time, however, keeps it in its fresh-from-the-oven condition, especially when reheated after thawing.

TURKEY TIPS

Turkey is plentiful right now and it's good sense to serve it frequently. Turkey is a constant family favorite, and for round-the-clock recipe possibilities why not try creamed turkey on whole wheat waffles (made from the new mix), turkey and fresh-fruit salad or roasted cranberry-apple glazed turkey breast?

PROTEINS FOR PENNIES

Sardines, those tasty silver fish found packed in oil or tomato sauce in every grocery store, are an excellent source of protein. A 4-oz. can supplies 45 percent of the recommended adult daily allowance of protein and calcium, as well as significant amounts of phosphorus and iron. The current retail price of a 4-oz. can of sardines ranges between 20 and 30 cents. Larger cans average 45 cents per can.

GOLDEN MACARONI 'N' FRANK BAKE

Preheat oven to 350°F. In 1½-qt. baking dish combine 2 cans (14¾-oz. size) macaroni and cheese, 1 can (1 lb.) sliced carrots, drained, ½ lb. frankfurters, cut in chunks, ¼ teaspoon caraway seed, ¼ cup fresh or frozen chopped onion and 3 drops Tabasco sauce. Sprinkle with ½ cup grated Cheddar cheese. Bake 25-30 minutes, until bubbly. Makes 4 servings

BEEF BALLS ITALIANO

Preheat oven to 350°F. In large bowl combine 2 slices rye or whole wheat bread, crumbled, ½ cup hot milk, 1 egg, 1 lb. ground beef, 1½ teaspoons garlic salt, ½ teaspoon pepper and 2 teaspoons parsley flakes. Work well with hands and then shape into 10 large meatballs. Place in shallow 2-qt. baking pan. In same bowl combine 2 cans (10½-oz. size) tomato soup, ½ cup water and 1 teaspoon oregano leaves. Pour over meatballs. Bake for 30 minutes. Makes 5 servings

BAKED CHEESE SANDWICH

Preheat oven to 375°F. Grease a 13x9x2-inch baking pan. Spread 12 slices bread with mustard. Place 6 slices bread in baking pan, mustard side up. Top with 6 slices Swiss cheese, folded in half. Cover with remaining bread slices. Beat together 4 eggs, 2 cups milk, 1 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce. Pour over sandwiches. Sprinkle with 2 cups grated Cheddar cheese. Top with 6 tomato slices. Bake 25 minutes, or until puffed. Makes 6 servings

QUICK BEAN CHOWDER

In 3-qt. saucepan combine 2 cans (16-oz. size) pork and beans in tomato sauce, 1 can (12 oz.) corn with red and green peppers, 1 can (8 oz.) tomatoes, 1 cup chopped fresh or frozen onion, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 bay leaf and 1 qt. water. Mash beans lightly with potato masher. Heat to boiling, reduce heat and simmer for 15 minutes uncovered. Makes 2 qts.

A Delicious Old-Fashioned Brown Beef Stew

There's nothing more satisfying than a brown beef stew, laden with vegetables, simmering on the stove on a windswept night. This recipe is a traditional one, and we give a few flavor variations for the cook who wants to personalize her creation.

OLD-FASHIONED BROWN BEEF STEW

- 3 lbs. boneless chuck, cut in 1½-inch cubes
- ¼ cup all-purpose flour
- 2½ teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 1 onion stuck with 4 whole cloves
- 4 parsley sprigs
- 1 celery top, broken
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 teaspoon thyme leaves
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 4 cups water
- 1 lb. white onions, peeled

Satisfying? You bet it is—the flavorful goodness of Old-Fashioned Brown Beef Stew.

Rupert Callender

A pound of Miracle spreads like a pound and a half.

Miracle Brand Margarine from Kraft is whipped. So, whether it's in the six-stick pound or big one-pound re-usable bowl, Miracle spreads like a pound and a half of regular margarine.

That means Miracle will spread 56 more slices of bread or muffins or sweet rolls.

A pound of Miracle Margarine spreads like a pound and a half. These days, that's a small miracle in itself.

- 1 lb. carrots, peeled and quartered
- 2 lbs. medium potatoes, peeled and halved
- 4 ribs celery, cut in 2-inch chunks
- 2 medium white turnips, peeled and quartered, or 1 small yellow turnip, peeled and quartered
- ¼ cup water

1. Pat meat dry with paper towels. On sheet of waxed paper, combine flour, salt and ground black pepper. Coat meat cubes thoroughly with seasoned flour; reserve leftover flour.
2. In 6-8-qt. Dutch oven heat butter and oil until hot, but not smoking. Brown meat cubes, several at a time, over medium-high heat until well-browned on all sides, removing pieces as they are done. This step will take 20-30 minutes.
3. Return meat to Dutch oven. Add garlic, onion with cloves, parsley, celery top, bay leaf, thyme and Worcestershire. Stir to mix. Add water. Bring to boiling; reduce heat and simmer, covered, 1½ hours.
4. Add onions, carrots and potatoes; simmer, covered, 20 minutes. Add celery and turnips; simmer 20 minutes, or until tender.
5. In measuring cup, combine ¼ cup water with 3 tablespoons reserved flour mixture, stirring until smooth. Stir slowly into stew; simmer 5 minutes, or until the mixture is thickened. Makes 8 servings

Party tip: To present Old-Fashioned Brown Beef Stew in the traditional English manner, serve in casserole with a crust. Turn hot stew into an oven-proof casserole. Cover with a pie-pastry crust. Decorate top attractively with leaves or other pastry cutouts. Beat 1 egg yolk with 2 tablespoons water and brush surface of pastry with it. Bake in preheated 425°F. oven for 25-30 minutes, until crust is golden brown.

TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL STEW

1. Butter and vegetable oil are used to brown the meat for two reasons. Butter for flavor and color and vegetable oil for its ability to be heated to high temperatures without smoking.
2. The browning step is very important to develop good, rich flavor. Make sure meat cubes are well coated with seasoned flour. Do not crowd the cubes, otherwise they will steam instead of brown.
3. To vary flavor add 2 tablespoons tomato paste along with water in Step 3. Also, substitute 2 cups of red wine for 2 cups of water in Step 3.
4. Mushroom lovers: Sliced fresh or drained canned mushrooms, about ½ lb., can be added with the celery and turnips if you like.

Your baby's first foods should be plain and simple.

When your baby nears his first month, his world begins to broaden. Eyes begin to follow light . . . tiny fists unfold . . . as he discovers the world around him.

And soon it's time for one of the most unique experiences of all . . . the introduction of solid foods.

It's important that your baby begin on the simple foods. Traditional starters are single-grain cereals . . . one-fruit juices . . . plain strained meats. They'll make up the basic diet for your baby, not only helping to provide adequate nourishment, but also helping to broaden his tastes.

Keeping to the simple varieties at the beginning is important, too, in helping you and your doctor note any unusual reaction to certain foods.

How do you know your baby is ready for solids? It depends on individual needs and your doctor. Now the question is, which food will be used as a starter? For most babies, it's cereal.

Starting with cereal. Gerber single-grain cereals are excellent choices. They have an especially smooth texture. And the flavors are pleasantly bland, the way babies prefer them.

Rice and Oatmeal are the traditional cereals recommended. Like all Gerber dry cereals, each is enriched with iron, thiamin, and other important B-vitamins.

When first introducing cereals, it's a good idea to make the mixture quite soupy (4 or 5 tablespoons of milk or formula to 1 tablespoon of cereal). As baby gets used to the mixture, you can gradually make the cereal thicker.

Meats provide important protein. Simple strained meats are the best starting meats. And Gerber meats are high in the body-building protein that your baby needs during his first year — his fastest year of growth.

Gerber meats are lean and moist. They're processed the Gerber way to retain natural juices and lower the fat level, when necessary.

rooms, drained, ¼ teaspoon thyme leaves and 3 drops Tabasco. Blend ¼ cup water and 2 tablespoons flour smoothly, stir into soup mixture. Heat to boiling, stirring once or twice. Prepare instant mashed potatoes for 5 or 6 servings according to package directions. Spoon potatoes on top of stew, making "dumplings." Serve in deep soup bowls.

Makes 5-6 servings

Time for variety. Your baby's interest in food at 6 months is likely to be higher than it will be at one year, so this is an ideal time to introduce him to a variety of foods.

Let your baby try one new food at a time. Small portions at first, then gradually increase the serving. And if you serve the new food at the beginning of a meal, when he's hungry, he'll probably be more ready to accept it.

Work for a balanced daily diet, including milk and milk products; meat and other protein foods; vegetables and fruits; cereals.

Feeding tips. Should you heat the baby food? Unless your baby likes it that way, it's not necessary. Try warming vegetables and meat, serve fruit and dessert at room or refrigerator temperature. Fruit juices should not be heated; it might destroy the Vitamin C.

Remember, too, that at the beginning, your baby will probably not be eating a full jar of food. So when you don't expect to use it all at one feeding, transfer the portion to be fed to a serving dish. Cover and refrigerate the unused portion. Try not to feed your baby directly from the jar.

And do relax. These are the times when your baby will form associations with food that will stay with him all his life. When mealtime is a happy sharing time, your baby will have a feeling of security and belonging.

Babies are our business.

Sweet Potato Pie and Two Down-Home

Country singer Charley Pride's latest RCA Records album is called "Pride of America."

By Charley Pride
in conversation with Helen Dorsey

I don't know how my mother managed to cook so well for such a large family. I grew up in Sledge, Miss., with seven brothers and three sisters. My mother never had too much to work with, but she seemed to know what she was doing, whether she was cooking for five or 15.

Of course cooks in those days never had any special recipes; it was all in their heads. But somehow everything they prepared tasted delicious. I particularly loved my mother's peach preserves. In fact, I've just found someone who fixes them the way she used to. There's a little country restaurant near the Lovelock Motel on Highway 100 outside of Nashville where they serve beautiful biscuits and peach preserves.

My mother cooked almost every Southern food you could mention: biscuits, corn bread, fried chicken, turnip greens, collards, black-eyed peas, peach pie or peach cobbler. And her sweet potato pies, how I loved them! My mother's passed on now, but every time I have sweet potato pie, I think about her. My dad's still alive, and he's almost as good a cook as my mother was. I'm lucky, too, that when I married, I gained another mother. [Charley's mother-in-law, Mabel Cochran.] She's a real Southern cook and taught my wife well.

I live in Dallas now. When I really long for food like my mother used to cook, I go to my dad's or my mother-in-law's to get the real black-eyed peas and sweet potato pies. My mother-in-law will tell you how to fix my favorite food.

CHARLEY'S FAVORITE SWEET POTATO PIE

- 1 cup, cooked, mashed sweet potatoes
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1/2 cup milk or half and half
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- Pinch salt
- 1 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- 1 cup sugar, or less if desired
- 1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell

1. Combine sweet potatoes with all ingredients except pie shell, blending well with electric mixer (or hand-mix using a wooden spoon). Pour into pie shell.

2. Bake in preheated 400°F. oven about 30 minutes, or until golden and puffy. Serve alone or topped with sweetened whipped cream.

BLACK-EYED PEAS

- 1 ham hock (about 1/2 lb.)
- 2 cups water
- 1 medium-sized onion, chopped, optional
- 1 cup dried black-eyed peas (soak overnight in refrigerator)
- Salt to taste
- Pepper to taste

1. Place meat in saucepan with water. Add onion. Cover; cook over low heat about 1 hour.

2. Drain peas, discarding any discolored ones. Add peas to meat; add more water if necessary. Continue cooking about 1 hour, or until peas are tender. Season to taste.

3. To serve, cut meat into small pieces, add to peas. Delicious with corn bread.

Makes 4 servings

Ore-Ida Hash Browns.

A delicious alternative to baked, boiled and mashed.

After man learned how to boil water, he learned how to boil potatoes. Then he learned how to bake and mash them. Since then, dinner has usually meant baked, boiled or mashed potatoes.

Enough is enough. Enter Ore-Ida Southern Style Hash Browns. Luscious, like the mose of the finest Russet potatoes. Quick frozen and ready to use.

In about ten minutes, they fry up or so and golden on the outside, fluffy and steamy on the inside. Not a boiled potato at all.

Young Jack Ford:

"I wish the whole thing with my father had never happened... but I'm resigned to making the best of it."

The President's son, Jack.

By Gary Kinder

Jack Ford is strikingly handsome. He is a well-built six feet, and his hair is blond, not brown as it appears in most pictures. His blue-gray eyes are set in strongly chiseled features, and there's a slight split between his two front teeth that accentuates a hard-to-earn, but warm, smile.

On a recent day when we chatted, Jack was dressed in Levi's, a gray Forest Service shirt, a green vest and, oh yes, moccasins. He shakes hands warmly, lights up a cigarette and settles into a chair.

Since his father became Vice President in October, 1973, Jack admits the Ford family has been much closer. "But I still don't always agree with my father," he says. "And when I don't, people accuse me of being traitorous."

On the Utah State campus in Logan, where Jack is a senior majoring in forestry, he manages to maintain a low profile. He apparently wishes the profile were even lower. "I wish the whole thing with my father had never happened," Jack says, "but I'm resigned to making the best of it. This all-American image of my family is unfair. We're played up to be not just normal, but perfect, and that's not the way it is. We had the same fights at the dinner table as any other family, and I can remember not talking to my mother for days because she wouldn't let me have my own way."

Some people just can't accept all this candor. A few months ago, a reporter from the East was dispatched to get a story on Jack. The result was a scathing article that, in turn, prompted a bagful of hate-mail that blasted Jack for having long hair and a beard (which he has since shaved off), and for drinking beer.

Jack lives with his six roommates in a cinnamon-brick house across from the campus. A light-blue Mercury, manned by two Secret Service agents who shadow nearly every move Jack makes, sits ready at the curb.

estry covers the arched entrance to the living room, concealing empty beer cans and ashtrays strewn across the large wooden spool and the black footlocker that serve as coffee tables. Record albums are crammed into stacked orange crates; the posters on the wall say "Keep On Truckin'" and "Let's Boogie." A black Secret Service phone is a hotline to the house next door. Even the phone can't elude Jack's playful nature; it boasts imaginary extensions labeled "Moscow" and "Peking."

Talking with Jack, it is easy to see how his opinions get him into trouble. For example, he strongly favors busing. At T.C. Williams High School in Alexandria, Va., Jack had a number of close black friends. "They often protested against many things they felt were unjust, but that never got in the way of our friendship. Busing serves a good purpose. Because of it I was exposed to a new culture, a new way of life, firsthand."

He doesn't always disagree with his father. For example, at first he was in favor of total amnesty for those who fled the Vietnam draft. Now he's not so sure. "The people who did go fight in Vietnam must be considered too. I would like to think that if I had gone over there I would still be for total amnesty, but I didn't go, so I can't say. But I think that those who did go would be bigger men for forgiving."

After he graduates this spring, Jack plans to start a consulting firm in management of natural resources. He'd also like to have a master's degree in watershed management. He said he doesn't care to seek an active role in politics at this time, but adds, "I won't back away from the opportunity should it present itself in the future."

Late for intramural football practice, Jack cranks up his 250 cc Kawasaki dirt bike and barrels over to the field, followed closely by the light-blue Mercury. In recent history there have been no first families with grown sons, so there is no precedent for Jack to follow. One gets the feeling that even if there were, Jack probably wouldn't follow it anyhow.

"Doing this simple exercise, I have no more problems with my sacroiliac."

How To Correct Your Own Back Troubles!

Yet this ingenious new medical exercise is so simple, it can actually be taught over the phone!

And once it drains back pain out of your body for good, then it may be combined with these simple "Preventative Exercises" to slow up all those agonizing, back-related aging processes—

INCLUDING: Chronic fatigue . . . headaches . . . colds . . . hardening of the arteries . . . stomach upset . . . stroke . . . sinus trouble . . . chronic gas . . . shortness of breath . . . migraines . . . loss of hearing . . . thinning hair . . . insomnia . . . stomach bloats . . . troubles with circulation . . . even sexual inadequacy!

All From A Simple, Gentle Series Of Back Exercises? ABSOLUTELY YES! Because The Health Of Your Spine And Back Determines The Health Of Your Entire Body, Like This . . .

This advertisement is addressed to every man and woman who now suffers from the agonizing—and now completely unnecessary—torment of back pain, however caused!

It makes no difference what you call this pain—"sciatica," "sacroiliac," "curvature," "low back pain," "calcium deposits," "even slipped discs" or "whiplash"! No matter what its cause, this agony can be treated by you yourself! Can be drained out of your body by you yourself! And can be replaced by glowing, pain-free good health—all by yourself, following the simple new revolutionary home treatment given you by one of the West Coast's foremost specialists in the almost-instant alleviation of back troubles, by the informed patient himself!

But Let Us Have This Noted Physician Speak For Himself! Hear What He Says, In His Own Words, About The Startling Results This Simple Adjustment Has Given Back Sufferers—in Thousands Of Cases!

For example—
 "The corrective exercise is so simple that one woman patient gave instructions over the telephone to a daughter who was not a patient—and it worked."
 "The exercise is always safe. No matter how often you do it, you cannot overcorrect."
 "Sometimes the results from correcting the sacroiliac are so instantaneous and sweeping that even I am surprised."
 "It can be done sitting, standing, lying down, and it can be done by anybody. It is so wonderfully simple that few, until they try it, believe it can almost surely relieve their aching back and their sciatica."
 "There is no strain or pressure, and there is little to remember in performing the exercise properly."
 "I have never had a failure. Anyone can do it, and it always works."
 "Just move about normally, with confidence—for now you have the faculty to slip your joint back whenever it goes out."
 "I don't see any benefit in fusion or disk removal at any time. The corrective exercise, simple as it is, helps almost any functional back problem."
 "As for his remaining drugs, I tapered these off, and at the end

Once again, this ingenious new medical exercise is so simple, it may actually be taught over the phone. Yet, patient after patient has said that, "repeating this simple exercise, I have no more problems with my sacroiliac." And it is merely the first step towards not only correcting back pain, wherever it occurs, but also slowing up the back-related aging processes listed on this page. Why not read the full details right now. And send for the book which gives all these self-corrections to you . . . to read from cover to cover . . . without your risking a penny.

of two weeks he was off them completely, for the first time in years."
 "She wanted to come in and see me again, but I told her I could do nothing more for her than she could do for herself with the exercise I had shown her."

So The Choice Is Up To You! You Can Let Back Trouble Grow Worse And Worse, Till It Destroys Your Entire Health! Or You Can Free Yourself From It With This One Simple Exercise, And Then Go On To Watch That New Back Health Produce Renewed Vigor Over Your Entire Body!

But this doctor goes on to warn you that if you allow this back pain to persist . . . if you allow this weakness to grow and grow till it chronically inflames the fibrous tissues surrounding your spine, and chronically curves that spine itself . . . or if you try to treat that back trouble with inappropriate measures (such as heat, prolonged rest, or especially unnecessary surgery)—then you may be literally weakening and incapacitating that body . . . adding years to the way you look and feel . . . and condemning yourself to an unnecessary "prison of pain" for as long as you live!
 But . . . if you decide right now to take the care and rejuvenation of your spine into your own hands—and follow these simple, gentle, wonder-working exercises—then the growing health and vitality of that spine will radiate irresistibly outward . . . strengthening and rejuvenating, in turn, each of your vital organs from your hair to the soles of your feet!

So Much So, In Fact, That This Doctor Has Recorded, With Astonishment, Such Amazing "Secondary Health Benefits" As These . . .

Again, to use his own words:
 "We don't have to get old at a certain age. Starting at age 45 or 50, I have seen men pitch into these exercises and in two or three years . . . exceed the activity of a young man of 25 or 30 years."
 "I have seen severe bursitis cases completely cured after several months of gradually increasing exercises, the calcium disappearing through absorption."
 "Many patients, after exercising, have a definite resurgence in hair growth, with a sharp rise in color."

 "We improve resistance to exhaustion, displace a tendency in older people to get dizzy, and step up sexual activity. Our walk is springier, we require less sleep, memory improves."
 "Patients, once subject to colds, will go for years, or forever, without suffering from this nuisance."
 "In three weeks, he noted a hearing improvement. In three months he could hear the tick of his watch on the night table, a sound he hadn't heard for almost a year."
 "Some patients with insomnia problems have reported that after a few weeks of exercises, they are able to drop off to sleep in the daytime, in resuscitating naps, for the first time in their lives."
 "Some have lost as much as two inches around the waist . . ."
 "Sometimes, the corrected patient gets an unlooked-for bonus—an increase in height of an inch or more."
 "Within even minutes, some patients have reported relief from chronic gas spasms."
 "After the sacroiliac joint is stabilized, they happily report they have all the energy in the world because they are breathing freely again."
 "Our most dramatic success has come from migraine headaches."
 "Even when I'm treating a person who has had a whiplash problem for two or three years, I can quickly see the patient get up and walk freely around my office."

But Why Let Others Gain Such Wondrous Relief When You Suffer Such Agony? This Is Your Chance To Turn A Great Problem Into A Great Good—All In Your Own Home, Without Risking A Penny!

You owe it to yourself to try it at our risk and FEEL the results! And I invite you to do just that! It costs you nothing! We take all the risk! Fair enough? Why not send in the coupon—TODAY!

WHAT OTHERS SAY

"Dr. Thompson's special corrective exercise to rebalance the sacroiliac joints is simpler and more effective than the older elaborate techniques. I want to thank Dr. Thompson for making this new volume available."
 —Lester S. Blumensath, M.D., F.A.C.P.

 —Anne Francis, Motion Picture Actress

 —Hugh Lynn Cayce
 "Dr. Thompson describes a simple but remarkably effective self back adjustment that he discovered. To me it is worth the price of the book alone many times over. Do I recommend it? You bet!"

Can Your Dreams Last Night Make You Happier Today?

TRUE OR FALSE?

1. How much you recall of what you dream tells a lot about your personality.
2. There are tested tricks and devices you can use to help you remember, relive and evaluate your dream-life experiences.
3. It is possible to know you are dreaming while you are dreaming.
4. Your most productive dreams are likely to occur in the morning hours.
5. You can learn to control your dreams.

ANSWERS

1. True. Dream-research studies show that low dream recallers tend to be "conformist, self-controlled and defensive." They are also likely to be "more confident and less self-aware than habitual high dream recallers." On the other hand, high dream recallers tend to be more anxious, less self-confident, but possess a keener insight into their innermost feelings and desires. Women seem to recall dreams better than men do.
2. True. First, use self-suggestion. Tell yourself firmly just before you go to sleep at night that you are going to remember your dreams. Next, to keep a dream from fading out of your consciousness like a wisp of smoke: "Knowing that you have just awakened from a dream, the next step is crucial. Don't open your eyes! Lie still with eyes closed and let images flow into your mind. . . . Just let yourself feel. Very often this is enough to allow the images of your just-ended dream to return." And, it's pointed out, the tiniest fragment of the last dream can serve as a hook for the whole night's series of dreams.
3. True. This is called a "lucid dream." Awareness can range from the mere thought that "this is only a dream" to an unbelievable freedom from all restrictions of body, time and space. When you become lucid you can do anything in your dream. You can fly anywhere you wish, experience romance with the partner of your choice, converse with friends long dead or people unknown to you; you can see anywhere in the world you choose, experience all levels of emotions, receive answers to questions that plague you, and, in general, use the full resource of material stored in your mind. You can learn to become conscious during your dreams.
4. True. Dr. Garfield's findings confirm those of another dream scientist. All the "lucid dreams" studied—the dreams that could be used most constructively—occurred between 5 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. It's concluded, that, "Perhaps it is easier to exert consciousness when more rested." In any case, dreamers are advised that dreams will be more successful during this period.
5. True. The psychologist reports her findings as follows: You can develop your dream control by keeping a careful diary of your dreams, working with it before and after dreaming, and learning from yourself. The most important goals to achieve during your dreams are developing dream friends, becoming fearless of dream enemies, and becoming conscious of your dream state. Once you are fearless of your dreams, you become free to use them in any way you desire. You may not be able to grow rich through dreams (although even this is possible), but you can assuredly grow happier.

Painful elimination is unnatural.

Many people have experienced the pain of dry, hard stools. And many have come to accept this, as if it were a natural part of elimination.

But there's nothing natural about it.

And Serutan makes this possible.

Serutan is the effective laxative that forms a smooth gel in the lower digestive tract, where it combines with intestinal waste to give you comfortable relief. There's no strain, and no cramps. That's because Serutan, with its natural ingredients, adds the necessary moisture and bulk to work with your system for smooth, easy results.

If you suffer from painful elimination due to constipation or dry, hard stools, try Serutan. You'll be very comfortable with it.

Heartburn? Acid Indigestion?

Powerful Antacid Formula absorbs twice the acid of the leading roll brand.

Brings quick relief when you need it most.

When you have a day full of problems... a day full of worries—your stomach may churn out excess acid. Next thing you know—you've had a stomachful—a stomachful of acid indigestion... heartburn.

That's why you should know about BiSoDol® Tablets. Although the leading roll antacid absorbs excess stomach acid, BiSoDol absorbs more. Based on minimum recommended dosage, BiSoDol actually absorbs twice as much excess acid as the leading brand. BiSoDol helps neutralize that steadily churned out excess acid. Helps bring quick relief when you need it most.

Powerful BiSoDol Tablets—with more acid-absorbing power. Pick some up today.

GEMFIRE -- a magnificent simulated diamond of dazzling clarity and fiery brilliance so close to a genuine diamond in hardness, brilliance and color that you, your family, and your friends will be hard put to tell them apart. And every Gemfire is cut and polished by skilled craftsmen in the same manner as a real diamond -- then each Gemfire with its 58 facets (the same as a real diamond) is carefully mounted in a luxurious mounting of 18K heavy gold electroplate (HGE), Gold-filled (GF) or solid Sterling Silver (SS).

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

HEAVY GOLD ELECTROPLATE (HGE) -- this mounting uses karat gold (either white or yellow) that is electrolytically bonded to the mounting after it is formed and the gold, by government standard, is 14 times thicker than the designation "gold electroplate".

STERLING SILVER (SS) -- the mounting is 92.5% pure silver, 7.5% other metals for strength, and to eliminate tarnishing is lightly plated with precious rhodium.

*CARAT (CT) -- a measure of weight for a diamond-stone and, Gemfires are given approximate carat values based on size (not weight). In other words, a 1 carat Gemfire is approximately the same as a 1 carat diamond.

What in the World!

A FINE ROMANCE
With no kisses ...

Kiss disability: A London High Court judge has awarded about $5,400 in damages to Mrs. Beryl Drage, 23, who suffered a car crash with her husband some years ago that resulted in her face being so critically disfigured that she is unable to kiss her husband any more. "She has been unable to pucker her lips and this has detracted from the ability to kiss and the physical attraction of kissing," said Judge William Stubb, who would have awarded her more money except that he held Mrs.

Drage 15 percent to blame because she was not wearing a seat belt at the time of the accident. "If she had been," said Judge Stubb, "I'm satisfied it would have minimized her injuries." Although Mrs. Drage has had several plastic-surgery operations, she says her lips are numb and she cannot put on lipstick. Her husband Brian seems to love her all the same.

The CBS series "Search for Tomorrow" recently celebrated its 6,000th performance and its 24th year on the air, making it the longest running show on daytime TV. To what does the show owe its success? According to Mary Stuart, who plays the role of Joanne Tate, and who, incidentally, has been with the show since its debut in 1951, "Search" is "much bolder" about life than other shows on the air. Miss Stuart likens it to an "endless novel"—one that has dealt with infidelity, abortion, euthanasia and other strong topics when those subjects were still taboo on other serials. Nobody watching the show could possibly have survived all the tragedies of Joanne Tate—another reason that may explain its longevity. It's nice to know you can flick a switch and find that somebody, somewhere, is worse off than you.

ROGER STAUBACH
Tragedy off the field

Roger Staubach on the death of his fourth daughter: "I identify with other people who have problems. Many things in Vietnam really bothered me. I'll pick up a newspaper and read about tragedy that strikes another family and it really gets to me personally. ... The death of our baby, Amy, tore us apart. We had been so happy looking forward to the baby's arrival. We were both smiling and happy one day, and the next day I was standing by the grave site with a little box, just a small box, and lowering it into the ground. The words BABY GIRL STAUBACH were put on the grave marker. We never even knew her." From "Staubach, First Down, Lifetime to Go," by Roger Staubach with Sam Blair and Bob St. John (Word Books, $8.95) ...

VISION OF THE FUTURE

Inflation could be worse, you know,
Though prices rise each week.
It still has quite a way to go,
It hasn't reached its peak.

I learned this from a dream I had,
A supermarket the site.
The dream was really pretty bad
And gave me quite a fright.

It seems I pushed two carts
(just look!)
To feed my hungry brood.
One cart was filled with cash it took
To buy the cart of food.

When Bill Brown took his hunting dog out in the field to show him off to several strangers, to his amazement the dog pointed to one of them. "He is smarter than you think," the man said. "My name happens to be Partridge."

An elderly gentleman sat at a table in the lounge of the country club, slowly reading the obituary column in the local newspaper. Suddenly, his face registered astonishment. "Sam," he whispered to another old club member sitting nearby, "according to this paper, everyone who died yesterday did so in alphabetical order."

The other day I was baby-sitting a little four-year-old girl and she told me that her mother's sister had just had a baby. I told her that I bet it was real cute. She said, "No, it's not a puppy, it's just a baby."

"Don't be alarmed. He can't read anyway."

If you smoke menthol.

Anybody who smokes knows there's a controversy about smoking going on. And that most of the controversy is about 'tar' and nicotine.

Yet when we ask the average menthol smoker why he smokes a menthol cigarette, he almost always tells us that he smokes a menthol because it doesn't have a hot or a harsh or a scratchy taste.

Well, Vantage with menthol doesn't have a hot or a harsh or a scratchy taste either.

But what Vantage Menthol also doesn't have is anywhere near the 'tar' and nicotine most of the other menthols have.

And that's something we thought a menthol smoker would want to know about.

Vantage Menthol tastes every bit as cool, every bit as refreshing as any menthol cigarette you ever smoked.

But it has only 11 milligrams 'tar' and 0.8 milligrams nicotine.

Don't get us wrong. That doesn't mean Vantage Menthol is the lowest 'tar' and nicotine menthol around.

It does mean that Vantage Menthol is the lowest 'tar' and nicotine cigarette that you'll enjoy smoking.

You don't have to believe us.

All you have to do is try a pack.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

* Filter: 11 mg. "tar", 0.7 mg. nicotine, Menthol: 11 mg. "tar", 0.8 mg. nicotine, av. per cigarette, FTC Report OCT. 74.
